A Dream Come True

St. Bonaventure is gone but not forgotten. Gone is the outmoded building of the past, replaced by a new wing. Gone is the name but never the memories. With the loss of the old name, a new one steps forth, bringing with it memories of its own. This year's seniors have had only a small part in the many things to come, but feel they own a part of Scotus Central Catholic as well as Saint Bonaventure.

With four years of high school behind them, and feeling worldly wise, they give to you these words of advise:

SENIORS-Go slow and see the things you have thus far only looked at. Remember, you are tomorrows leaders.

JUNIORS-Notice where you are going and set your goals high, for tomorrow you will lead the school.

SOPHOMORES-Choose your course wisely and carefully.

FRESHMEN-Relax! It's not as bad as it looks!!

We the annual staff give this to you with the hope that in years to come, you will enjoy the memories and moments as much as we have enjoyed composing them. We have tried to capture a moment of joy, surprise or reward. With these words we give to you the 1966 BONAVENTURE.

On Sunday, November 7, 1965, Father Clement Kubesh laid the corner stone for the new Scotus Central Catholic. This occasion marked the advancement of the new wing. Officiating at the event were Reverend Monsignor R.C. Ulrich, Father Fergus Stevenson, O.F.M., Father Norman Parr, and Father James McManamon, O.F.M., and Father Francis Price.

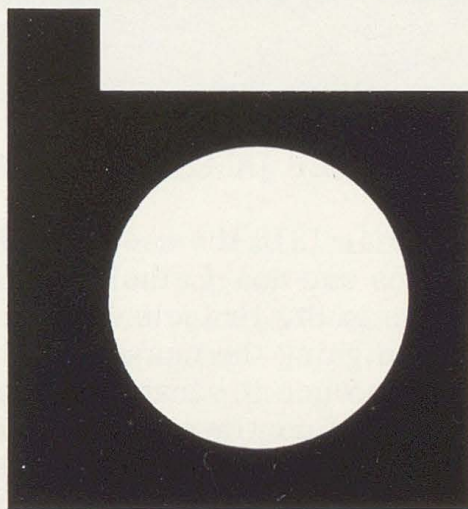

Nine parishes are united in the centralized support of the school this year.

Our Superintendent

FATHER JAMES McMANAMON, O.F.M.

On November 4, 1878 the doors of your school were first opened, teaching Catholics and non-Catholics alike. Six years later the Sisters changed the name to St. Francis Academy. In 1925 the parish bought the Academy, assigning the name of St. Bonaventure. This it remained until July 1, 1965, when it became Scotus Central Catholic High School.

In its 87 years of continuous operation, your school has achieved many honors and distinctions, which are a reflection of the excellent quality of instruction offered to you and the dedicated service of those who staff your school. The challenge to measure up to and to perpetuate this impressive tradition, rests with each student enrolled in Scotus Central Catholic High School.

Our Principal

SR. M. RAYNERIA, O.S.F.

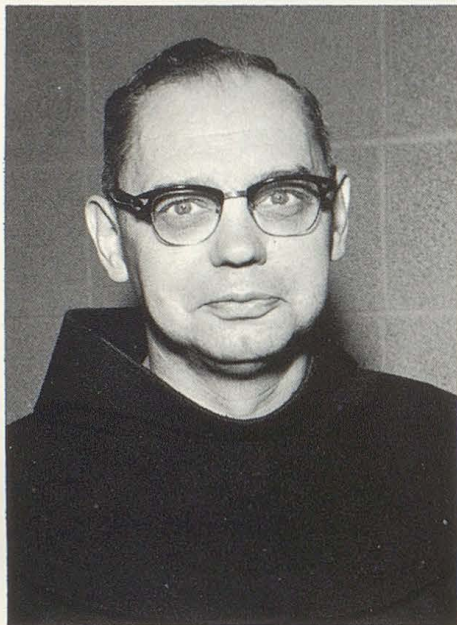

"ALL THE WORLD'S A STAGE." As I write each of you is playing the role of a student. This role you have in common. But the role you have chosen to play as individual students has been of your choosing. Variety has not been wanting. Some have chosen the part of complainers; some, the part of clowns; but most of you have played the part of those who care, who are interested in life, and who love their fellow man.

For you, my dear seniors, a new play is under way. What role will you choose to play? In the drama of life, everyone can choose his or her own part. Your home, your school, and other groups are preparing you; but YOU must play the role. It is yours to try, to aspire, to persist, to resist. PLAY WELL YOUR PART.

SPRING

Coach Dean Soulliere has served as Varsity Football and Track Coach for five years. During these years, he has fielded many prize teams. In 1963, St. Bonaventure lost the Class B Track Championship 29-31. In 1964, Soulliere's cinder men won easily over Gering and Chadron 33-16 becoming CLASS B CHAMPS. This year Soulliere guided his team to wins at the Doane Invitational, the Wayne's Blue Devil Relays, Knights of Columbus, Schuyler Invitational, the Archdiocesan, and a fourth straight year as the Nebraska Catholic Conference Champions. Coach Soulliere qualified thirteen boys to state this year.

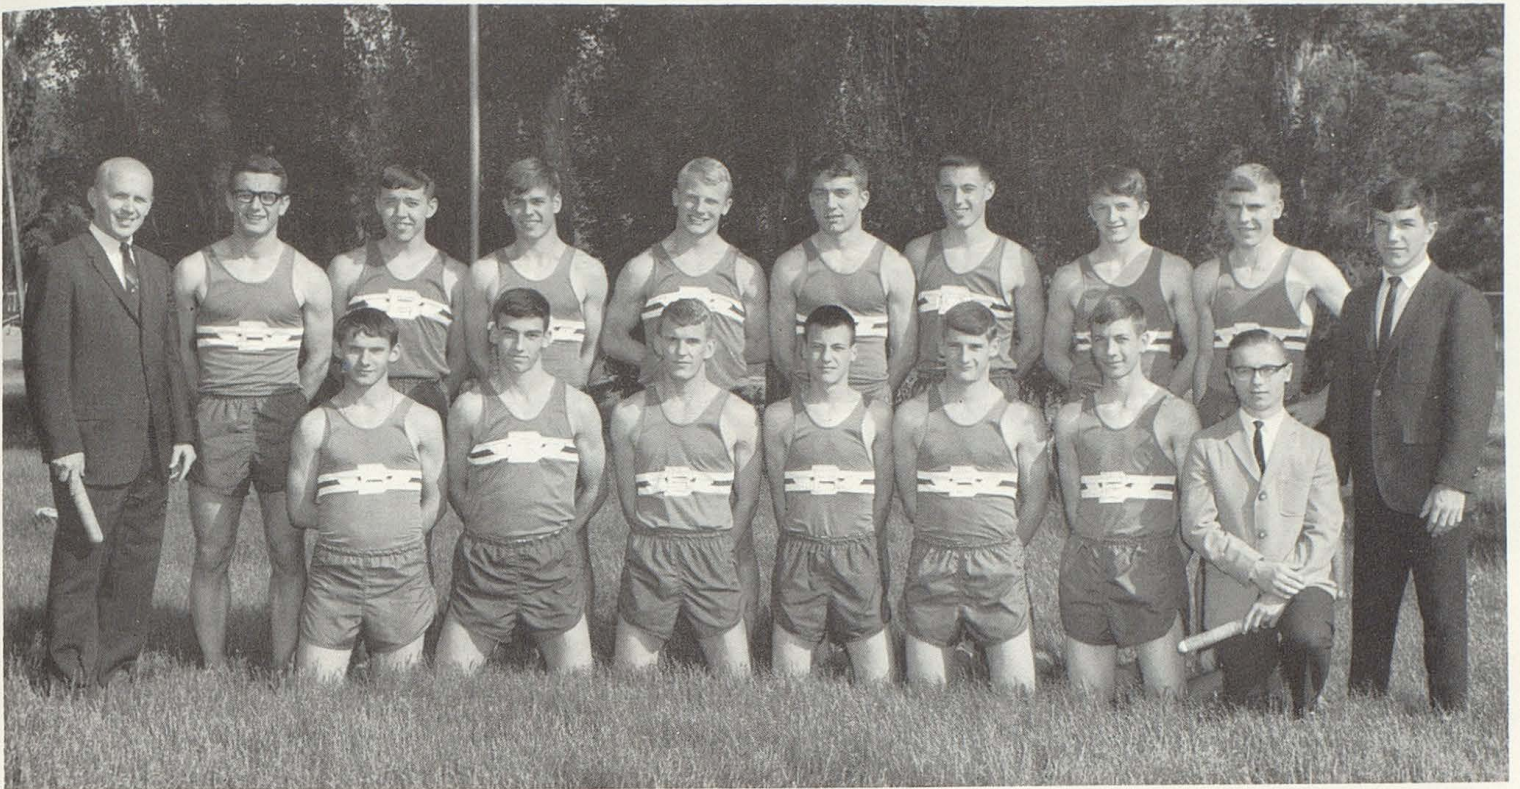

Although, Soulliere is no longer with us, we are sure the students will long remember the great teams he has given us.

NEW was the key word surrounding Scotus Central Catholic's first varsity football team under the guidance of Coach Pat Keitges. NEW was also the best word to describe Scotus' offensive and defensive units. With only six Seniors and returning lettermen, Coach found it necessary to rely heavily on Juniors, Sophomores and a sprinkling of Freshmen. This being Coach Keitges' first year as head coach, a 6-3 record is commendable. The annual staff of SCC recognizes the fine effort put forth by Coaches Keitges, Roumph, and Timmerman, and the 100% effort of the participating boys.

Good students managers are an asset to any team. Always there with "just the thing", they help wrap ankles, massage sore muscles, keep the locker rooms clean, equipment in order and other unmentionable, undesirable jobs. Our athletes may work up the sweat, but these guys wash it out! Here we acknowledge these guys behind the scene and commend them for the swell job they are doing.

The Homecoming spirit caught on long before game time. The pep band led the snake dance through town, followed by the candidates, booster club, S-Club and our trusty victory bell. A pep rally followed.

Halftime ceremonies were started by the band which formed a large S. Candidates rode onto the field in convertibles, where they were joined by the candidates for king. Last year's queen, Joan Feilmeier crowned Kathy Schneider queen, and Ty Jaroz did the honors crowning John Shank king. Mary Maguire, Booster Club president, presented Kathy roses.

To make SCC's first homecoming a complete success, the Shamrocks triumphed over Wahoo Neumann. Rugged action was the cause of a concussion suffered by Mark German. Greg Jasper presided in the ceremonies.

In this book we have tried to recapture, for you, the better memories of the past year. The 1965-66 annual staff has spent many long hours in preparing this book for you. Many months were spent in arranging layouts, copy, and photography schedules. While it was necessary to interrupt some classes, we would like to extend a sincere thanks to faculty members who have helped to make Scotus Central Catholic's first annual, appropriately, the best ever.

SPEECH

The speech department, too, has taken on a new look. The new speech coach, Mrs. Norma McHenry had her hands full organizing the Nebraska Catholic Conference Speech Contest, which will be held at SCC on March 5, 1966. As we go to press, none of the results are available.

In between her many other duties, Mrs. McHenry found time to organize SCC's first debate team. They attended a Seminar in Norfolk on January 29. On February 19 they attended a debate meet at Wayne, in which they placed 5th out of 17 schools. They plan to attend the Fine Arts Festival on April 1 and 2.

Tom Schaecher won the VOICE OF DEMOCRACY speech contest and went on to win the District.

THE PIZZA HUT

The hallowed halls stand silent as the rushing crowds have passed. The teachers have abandoned it. The janitor is gone. The parking lot stands empty and the cafeteria's quiet. The classrooms are deserted and the office is forsaken. No melodious music issues from the choir, no more typists typing, no more hammers tapping.

For another year has passed and with it pleasant times. Another class has left it, another will arrive.

The school remains in silence until another fall, when once again the students will roam the ivy halls.
