CELEBRATES A CENTENNIAL

of broadcasting the good news of Jesus Christ to a believing community which responds in service to others.

Scotus Communication Corporation (or Scotus Central Catholic, as it is better known) began broadcasting the good news of the gospel 100 years ago, when the Sisters of the Third Order of Saint Francis of Mary Immaculate started the school in August, 1878. The non-denominational school with after-hours catechism instruction was housed in a two-and-one-half-story brick building 27 by 53 feet. Originally, it was an elementary school, with higher courses added in 1882, when the school came under the administration of the Sisters of Saint Francis Seraph of Perpetual Adoration. The first class graduated from the tenth grade in 1895. By that time, dormitories, a laundry, and a new classroom wing had been added. Until 1925 the school was known as Saint Francis Academy; after purchase by the parish, it was called Saint Bonaventure's School. The first issue of the high school annual appeared in 1937. In 1941 the school received North Central Accreditation. The hot lunch program, under the direction of Sister Cyril, began in 1952. In 1956 construction began on the science wing. The Memorial Hall construction began in May of 1958; the cafeteria was completed in December of that year, just three hours before the first company dinner served there. The C building was completed in the fall of 1963, and the main structure of the present plant was dedicated in 1965. In that same year the school received a new name — Scotus, after the Franciscan scholar John Scotus. Eight other parishes joined St. Bonaventure to form the new centralized junior and senior high school: St. Anthony and St. Isidore of Columbus, St. Mary and St. Augustine of Schuyler, St. Stanislaus of Duncan, St. Lawrence of Silver Creek, St. Rose of Genoa, and St. Joseph of Platte Center.

THE SWEETHEART BOAT

After the game against Hastings St. Cecilia on Saturday, February 4, Sweetheart '78 began. At 10:30 the coronation of King Jeff Muhle and Queen Teresa Kelly took place. As you can see by the pictures, some people really had to stretch and strain to see the action.

The theme of the dance was "Come, Sail Away." Behind the thrones was a mural of sea with a ship in the distance painted by Sue Merrill and Carl Zoucha. At the entrance, streamers lined a pathway with life preservers attached, labeled "U.S.S. Sweetheart." The tables were covered with red crepe paper and boats covered with foil were filled with candy sweethearts. A variety of food and punch served as refreshments.

The band was the U.S. Kids, chosen by the sophomore class. They played songs of all kinds.

1 At the annual athletic banquet on May 8, Tim Hroza and Connie Hajek were named Boy and Girl Athlete of the Year. Recipients of other awards included:

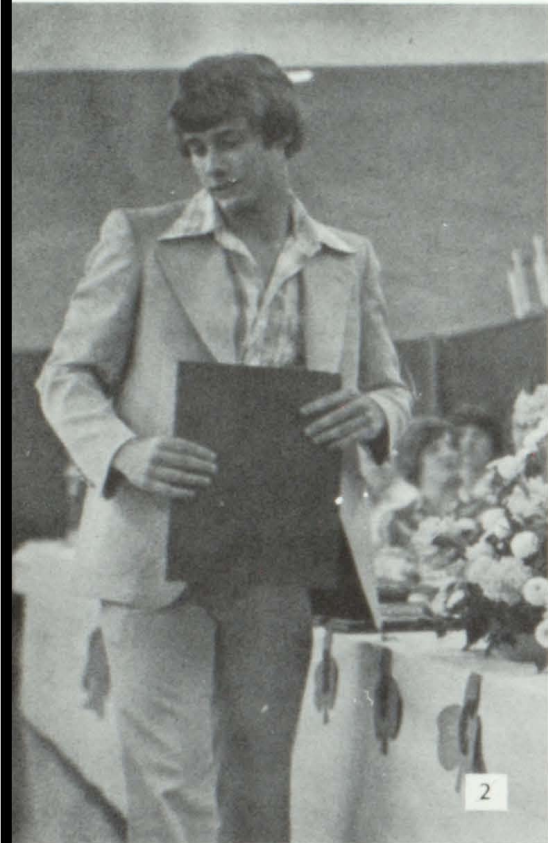

2 Connie Hajek and Rex Kumpf, Keystone Broadcasting-U.S. Army Achievement Award,

3 Gary Schieffer and Colleen Tooley, Babe Ruth Award,

4. John Heimann, Bill Toomey Scholarship.

5. Beanie Cooper, head football coach at the University of South Dakota, was the guest speaker. He talked about the need to develop God-given talents and the extent to which seemingly small amounts of talent may be developed with much hard work.

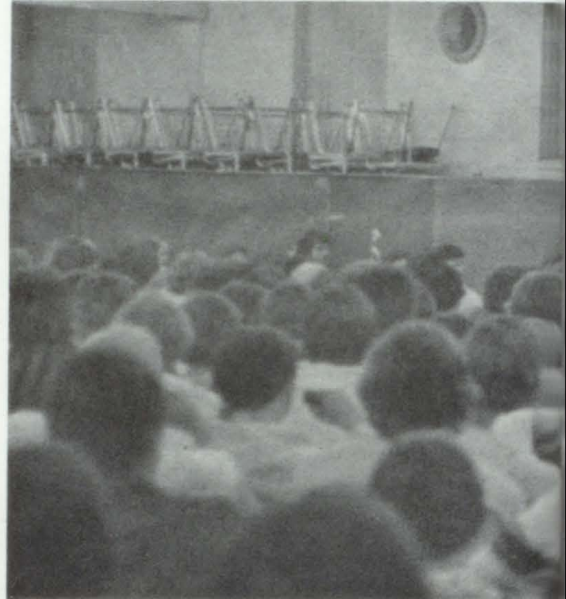

6 Mr. Al Grubaugh served as the master of ceremonies for the banquet, sponsored by the Shamrock Club and the Scotus Mothers Club.

COLUMBUS BANDSTAND

Essence played for the May 6 prom, amid a wealth of decorations by the juniors. At the banquet preceding the dance, Laurie Bosak and Tom Malmstrom revealed what the seniors had willed, while Julie VanAckeren and John Prosocki prophesied about the future. Sophomores served the meal.

FACE THE STATE

Selected to represent Scotus at Girls' and Boys' State this summer were Holly Holmberg and Ken Zoucha.

Holly is active in athletics, music, pep club, and journalism. Ken's interests include drama, music, and sports.

SCC ROAST

As usual, the freshmen chose the seniors' last day in the cafeteria to honor them with a series of frivolous awards for the annual Senior Day.

The Eucharistic Commencement Exercise on May 14 provided a number of things to celebrate. First was the graduation of the seniors, whose class song "Don't Stop Thinking About Tomorrow" and class motto "My Interest is in the Future, for That's Where I Plan to Spend the Rest of My Life" provided the theme for the Liturgy.

1. Music was provided by Glory Bound, the Swing Choir, Kim Grohs, Mr. Dave Ferguson, and Linda Warth.

2 Jacci Brown and Gary Schieffer read.

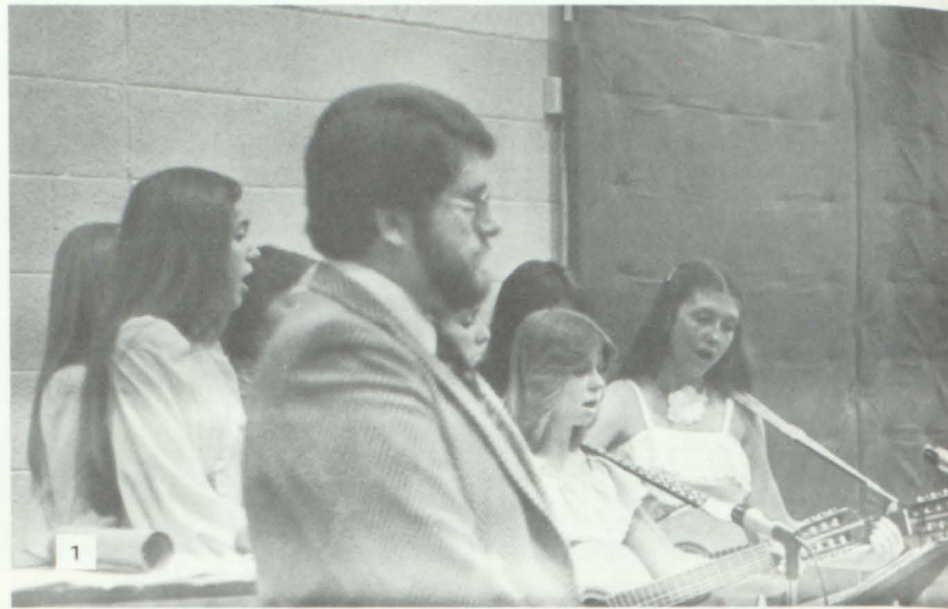

3 Father Buschelman's graduation address reminded everyone that it was also the feast of Pentecost by his mention of Christ's graduation address to the apostles.

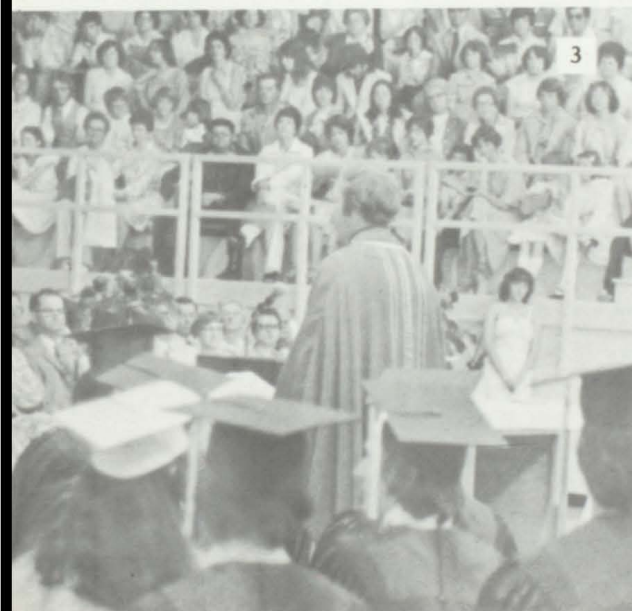

4 Terri Steiner read the petitions and Rex Kumpf the thanksgiving prayer.

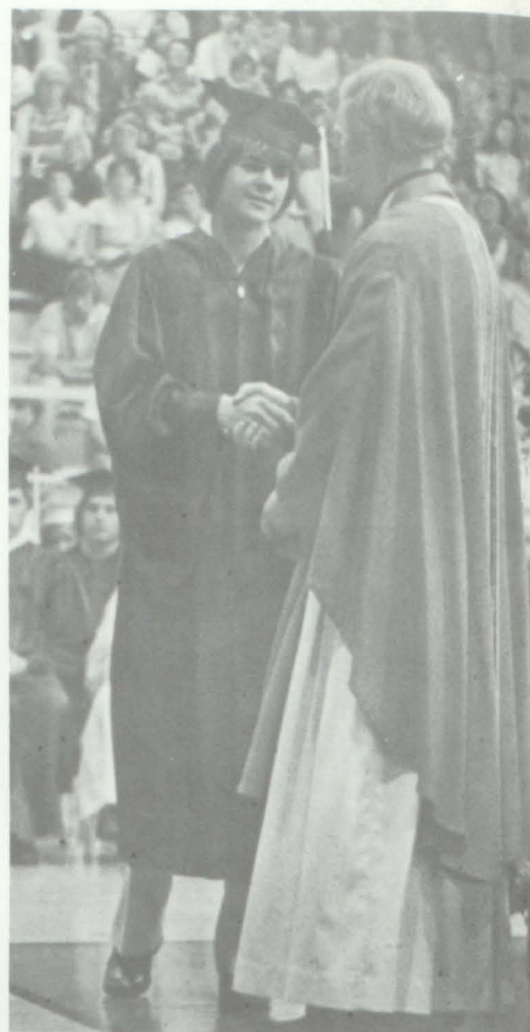

5 At the greeting of peace, because it was also Mothers' Day, each senior presented his or her mother a red rose, the class flower.

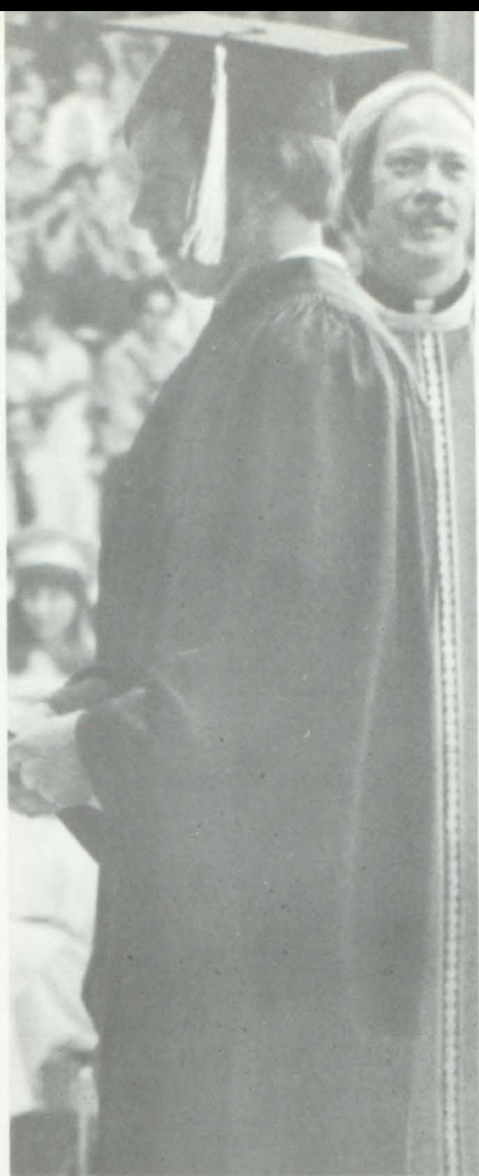

6 Concelebrating the Mass were Fathers Mike Gutzell, Francis Price, Laurin Buczynski, Jim Buschelman, Regis Watts, Dean Uhing, Ronald Reichmuth, and Frank Kordek.

JA MEMBERS LEARN BUSINESS BY DOING, FIND SELF-EXPRESSION THROUGH PARTICIPATION

They're learning business because they ARE a business — an active, wage-paying, profit-making activity that's run by teen-agers. More than business, they learn self-expression in JA activities that include meeting, conferring with and having fun with JA members from other cities.

For the first time since 1964, Scotus boys placed first in the state track meet. They ran first in the 220, 440, and 880-relay; second in the 100 and mile relay; and sixth in the two-mile relay. Top point-getter and winner of three gold medals was Mike Cielocha. As usual, Scotus also won all but one major meet this, nearly doubling the second place score each time. The freshmen also won their conference title.

DAISY CATCHES ABNER

Scotus drama and music departments combined efforts for a fall production of the Broadway musical Li'l Abner. The timing of the production was most fortunate, as it coincided with Li'l Abner creator Al Capp's announcement of his retirement and the disappearance of the popular comic strip from newspapers across the nation.

- 1 Speedy McRabbit responds to a summons from Available.
- 2 Stupefyin' Jones displays her powers.
- 3 The mayor of Dogpatch calls the citizens to action.
- 4 Mammy and Pappy Yokum hope they have raised their boy right.
- 5 General Bullmoose's secretaries wait at attention.
- 6 The general propounds his theories to Available and Apassionata.
- 7 Abner and Daisy Mae have a quiet moment to themselves.
- 8 The wives send their husbands off to test the tonic.
- 9 Earthquake McGoon glares at his rival.

IN FALL MUSICAL

- 1 Freshman dancers enjoy gala ball in Washington.
- 2 Marryin' Sam leads the chorus in a number.
- 3 The Scraggs arrive to complicate the plot.
- 4 The bachelors are off to a good start on Sadie Hawkins' Day.

The play was directed by Mr. Jon Wrage and Mr. Dave Ferguson. Linda Warth provided piano accompaniment for the musical numbers. Tim Tinius, Floyd Kosch, and Ted Bonk assisted with lighting. Karla Heinsohn was student director. Makeup was by Chris Davidson and Jacci Brown; art was by Joyce Kneifel, Sue Merrill, and Laurie Pekarek. Mrs. Ruth Jochum, Kelly Soulliere, and Marie McGillivray were in charge of tickets. Peg McGillivray and Jacci Brown provided props.

1878-1978: PART OF A PROUD TRADITION

Did you know that you are part of a proud tradition? You 1978 students represent the 100th year of a full century of Catholic education in Columbus.

It all began in 1878 when three Franciscan sisters from Illinois arrived to teach in a new brick school outside Columbus. (Incidentally, Scotus stands on the same site today) In 1884 the school became known as St. Francis Academy, a boarding school for girls. In 1904 a boys' dorm was added. When the parish bought the school in 1925 it became known as St. Bonaventure High School where many of your parents graduated. Then in 1965 grades 7-12 were reorganized and renamed Scotus Central Catholic High School so that the entire Columbus area could be served by Catholic education.

What does it mean to be part of a tradition? It means GRATITUDE—gratitude for the efforts and example of many others before us. It means PRIDE—a willingness to maintain a spirit of enthusiasm and hope for the future.

Don't let the past down; cherish the heritage given to you by the sacrifices of those before you. Don't let the future down: accept responsibly your task of being the best student today you can be.

J. Buschelman

PASS ON THE HERITAGE

- 1 Mr. Ed Hittner stands prepared for the day's activities, which might include
- 2 measuring seniors for caps or
- 3 helping a student prepare a course of studies.

Seniors of Seventy-Eight, do you realize that you have graduated in the same year that we are celebrating one hundred years of Catholic secondary education in Columbus? This event will have much meaning to you in the future.

Three generations of people have worked and sacrificed in order to establish and maintain a school in which young people in our area could study and develop their religious beliefs. It will soon become your responsibility to see that this tradition continues. Support your faith and your school as so many others have done before you.

Ed Hittner

ROOM 26-A

- 1 Mr. Steve Jahn, junior high principal, teaches science.
- 2 Students of Mr. Vern Younger, biological sciences teacher, have been known to give blood for him.
- 3 Mr. Dave Ferguson urges students to melodious utterances.
- 4 Studying science and geography with Mr. Dan Mahoney may teach you more than you ever wanted to know about waves.
- 5 Sometimes Mrs. Sharon Swanson's science classes can be smelled up on third floor.
- 6 Balancing a budget is only part of the home economics course taught by Mrs. Deanna Ekeler.
- 7 New to Scotus, Mr. John Petersen elucidates for junior high students the mysteries of math and science.
- 8 Mrs. Barb Malicky adds girls' p.e. to her science this year.

OUR MISS BECHTOLD

- 1 Miss Virginia Bechtold suggests sources for senior term papers.
- 2 Sister Rita Wiegand serves as junior high librarian.
- 3 Father Joe Miskch demonstrates for junior religion.
- 4 Thursday is Father John Rizzo's day to instruct the eighth grade.
- 5 Father Frank Kordek tells seventh graders about world religions.
- 6 Teaching 7th through 10th grade religion keeps Father Mike Gutsell busy.
- 7 Father Kieran Kemner's love of drawing comes in handy in his junior religion class.
- 8 Sister Joan Orleans helps a student with a religion packet.

WELCOME BACK, MRS. KOSCH

- 1 Miss Nancy Donner assumes the duties of counselor this year.
- 2 Mrs. Diane Schneider teaches business courses.
- 3 Juniors and seniors learn their English from Miss Cathy Rice.
- 4 Miss Jean Kiser finds plenty of activities to help students learn German.
- 5 Puppets and humor are just part of eighth grade English with Mrs. Jeanne Kobus.
- 6 Mr. John joins the Scotus faculty at second semester as an English teacher.
- 7 Mr. Jon Wrage, as befits a drama teacher, is a master of disguise.
- 8 Mrs. Linda Kosch returns to her alma mater to teach English to freshmen and sophomores.

MISTER DELUNA'S NEIGHBORHOOD

1 Miss Diane Mort provides extra insight on reading skills.

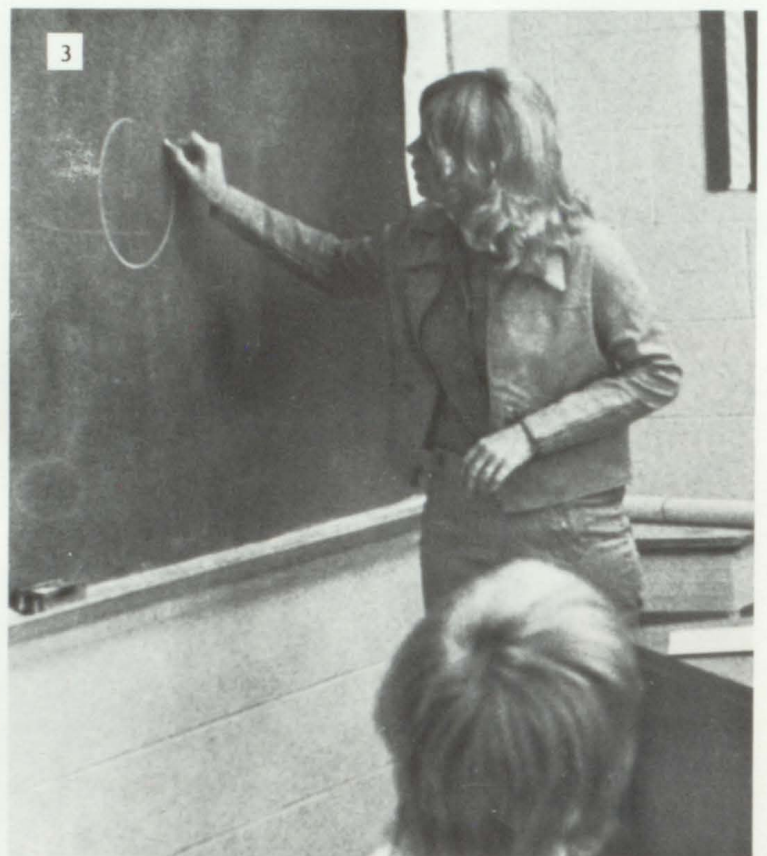

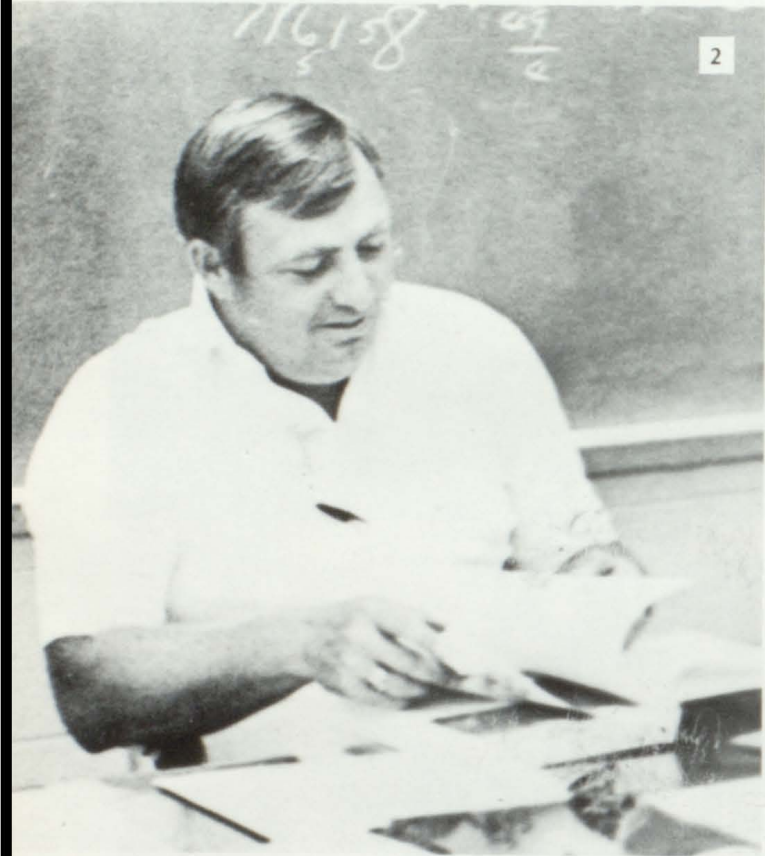

2 Sister Christine Hayes, former Scotus Junior High principal, teaches social studies and religion.

3 Mr. Henry Deluna's Spanish classes scrambled for candy from broken piñatas at Christmas.

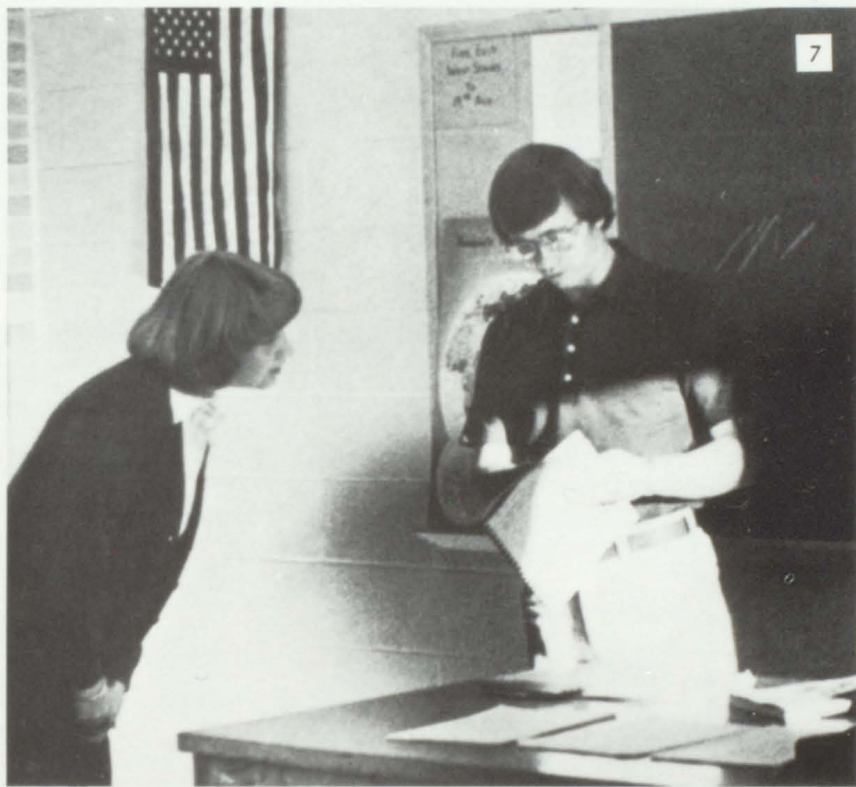

4 At semester Miss Maryann White began her career as a social studies teacher.

5 Mr. James Fehringer, local attorney, donates his talents to the business law class. So does Mr. Frank Skorupa, whose picture was not available.

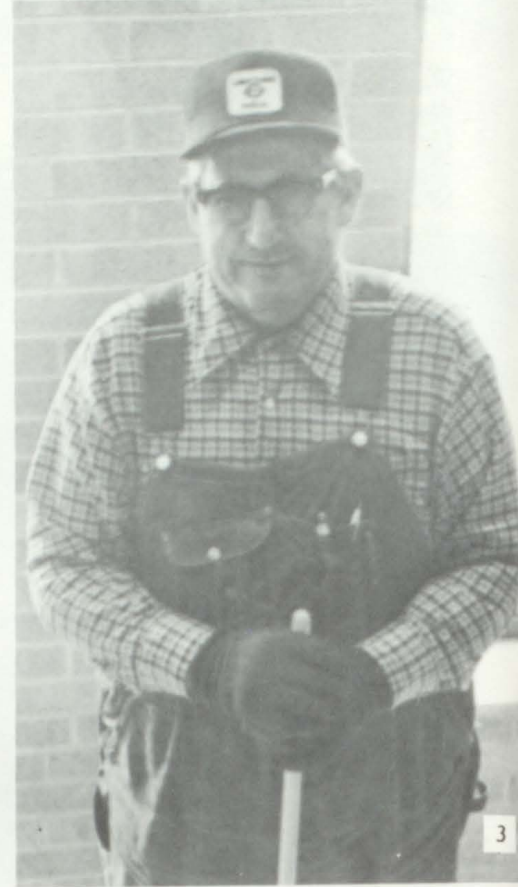

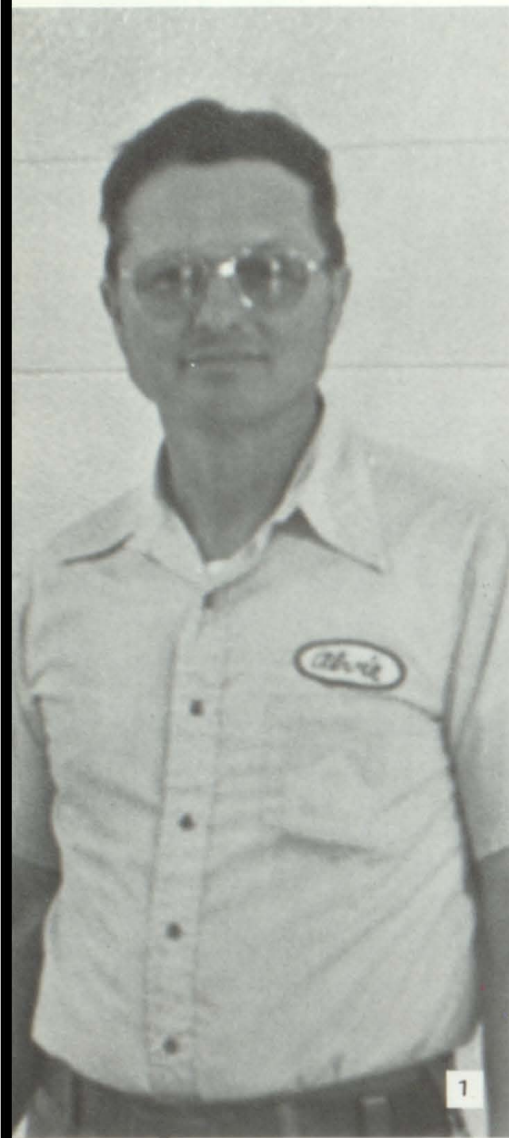

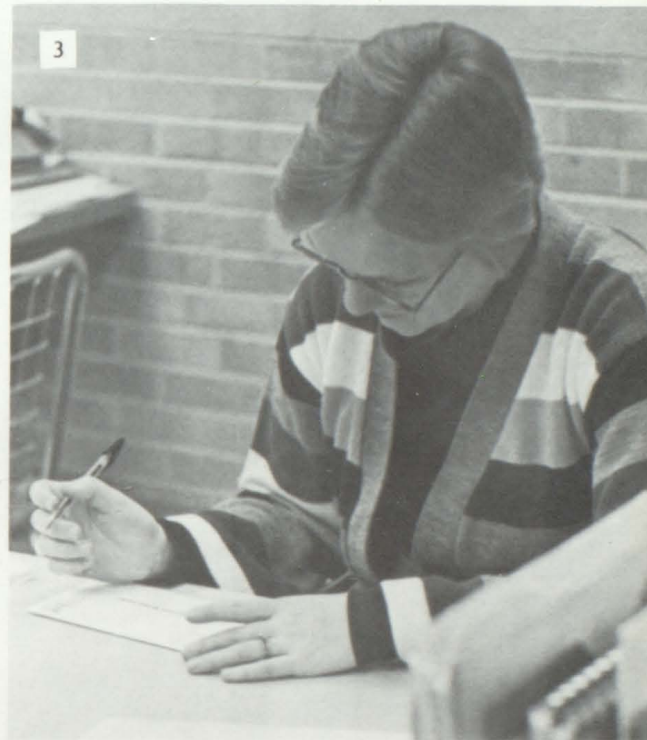

- 1 Driver Education and social studies are Mr. Gary Puetz's specialities.
- 2 Mr. Jim Puetz concentrates on presidents and world geography.
- 3 Mrs. Debbie Rhoades demonstrates one of the fine points of geometry
- 4 Junior high math has been individualized by Mrs. Mabel Pekarek.
- 5 Mr. Frank Spenceri keeps an eye on p.e. time.
- 6 Mrs. Jeane Larsen encourages students to speak out.
- 7 Sophomores and seniors study their social studies under Mr. Dennis Zowada.
- 8 Mr. Randy Berlin has finally found a math film.

MONDAY MORNING LIVE

1 Mr. Alvin Kurtenbach superintends the maintenance of the entire school plant. 2 3 He is assisted by Mr. John Mohr and Mr. Zigmund Shotkoski. 4 Student custodians include Jim Van Lent, Gary Kurtenbach, Al Kopetzky, Deb Janky, Nguyen Van Chung, and Mike Michaelski.

1 Providing the famous Scotus cafeteria lunches are Mrs. Verne Jarecke, Mrs. Cathy Hilger, Mrs. Josephine Haney, Mrs. Elsie Lange, Mrs. Norma Selichnow, Mrs. Clara Fletcher (manager), Mrs. Cecelia Bitter, and Mrs. Lucelle Maag.

2 Mrs. Ruth Jochum fills out one of thousands of blue slips.

3 Mrs. Rita Keller keeps track of tuition payments.

4 Mrs. Mary Jeanne Keating visits with former Scotus librarian Sister Gerard.
