Faculty

With many teachers leaving last year, some rising stars were coming to the show. They had an exciting year as always with their wonderful students. Their exceptional teaching ability will have a lasting impression on the Senior Class of this year, as well as the Under-Classmen. They have taught them more than just subjects, but about life, and have been there throughout their growing experience in high school.

7th Grade

As the first year of Scotus flashes by, the seventh graders are seen running through the halls and carrying their fifty pound bookbags around. These Little Rascals are just getting used to lockers and only four minutes between class periods, while learning the rules of the school. Jim Puetz is the highlight of their school day, and Life Science brings them into the world of Science. They will learn all the necessities that will get them through the next five years, and miss the years of being the Little Rascals of the school.

Little Giants

Eighth Grade

As the oldest in the Junior High, these eighth graders feel like they can rule. With one year under their belt, they can finally relax and enjoy their last year before things get really tough. Last year they were just getting to know each other in a new school, but this year they grow together as a class. With dances, Confirmation, and awkward stages of growing up, they will make it through two years at Scotus.

Clueless

Freshmen

Freshmen year can feel a little Clueless. Being a part of the Senior High, going to their first dances, and going through more demanding high school sports is among the many changes they go through. As their minds grow through this year they discover that they aren't as Clueless as they once were.

Sixteen Candles

Sophomores

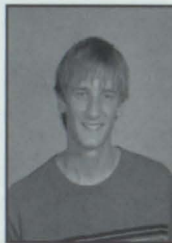

As Sophomores, this is the first year that they truly get involved in the high school. From getting their licenses and learning to drive, to selling candy bars, they have a lot of responsibility. This is one of the hardest years at Scotus dealing with horrifying Speech and Vernology (Biology). Even though they are the smallest class in Scotus, they seem to make themselves known through the halls. With only two more years to go, they find out now that they need to stick together and make friendships last before the year is over, and their Sixteen Candles are blown out.

Dazed and Confused

Juniors

After their hardest year at Scotus, this class can finally relax and enjoy only two years left, but not for long. After a while they start to think about college and their future. It can be a confusing time with Mrs. Duse and the mole song. Planning Prom is a highlight of the year, and getting to go is even more exciting. With all the new expectations of the year, the junior class ended up a little Dazed and Confused.

NOW...

Then...

Kendall Backman

Kendall plans on going to cosmetology school in Nebraska. Her favorite memory over the last four years is the "fight" against the Lakeview guys after the football game.

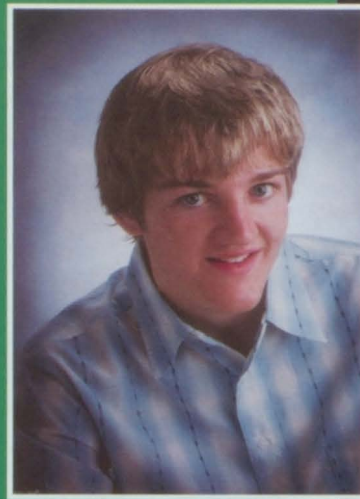

Kendall Backman

Josef Beauvals

Joey plans on attending Creighton University or Wesleyan University majoring in the medical field. He will miss the fact that he never felt pressured to impress anyone.

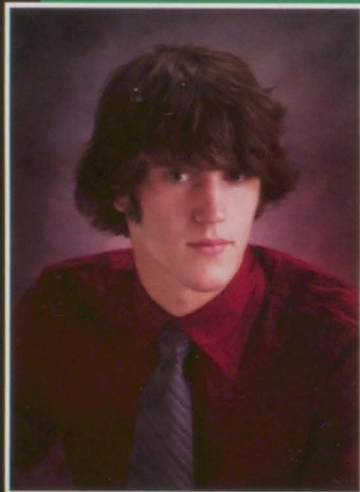

Joey Beauvals

John Bierbower

John plans on going somewhere far away to attend college. He mainly just wants to be remembered.

John Bierbower

Ashley Bowns

Ashley plans on attending Central Community College. She wants to be remembered for saying what needs to be said.

Ashley Bowns

Katie Cheloha

Katie plans on attending Wesleyan University to major in Theater. Her biggest accomplishment is discovering who she wants to be and being herself during school.

Katie Cheloha

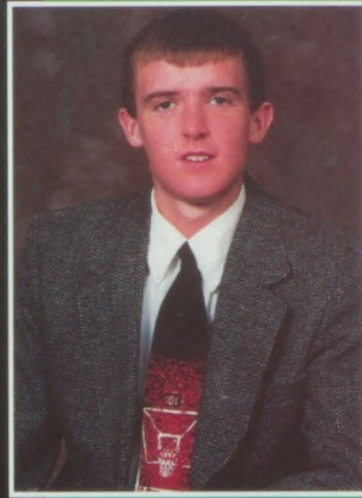

Shayla Christiansen

Shayla plans on majoring in Business Administration at Central Community College. She would like to be remembered for her power pole performance.

Shayla Christiansen

Kyle Clarey

Kyle plans on attending college and majoring in Pre-Pharmacy. He will miss the uniqueness and tremendous athletic and intellectual ability of the Senior Class.

Kyle Clarey

Jessica Daley

Jessie plans on attending Hastings College (or Wesleyan or Platte) to major in Chemistry (or Communication or Pre-Dentistry or Education or Business). She wants to be remembered as "Jessie"- the girl that always made people smile.

Jessica Daley

Kristina Flint

Kristina plans on attending the University of Nebraska at Omaha. She wants to let the Senior Class know that "We had some great memories and I hope that every one is successful in everything they want to acheive in life. Love you all."

Kristina Flint

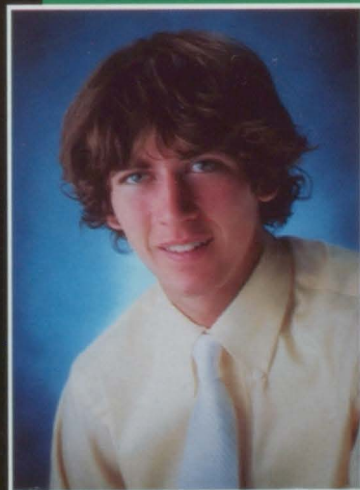

Amy Frauendorfer

Amy plans on attending Lincoln Southeast Community College for two years and eventually becoming a Forensic Scientist. Her favorite memory over the last four years is when the school had a snow day for the first time.

Amy Frauendorfer

Michael Gorkle

Michael plans on going to college. He wants to be remembered for being the only one in the class to be a loyal supporter of America's Team (Cowboys).

Michael Gorkle

Jennifer Haney

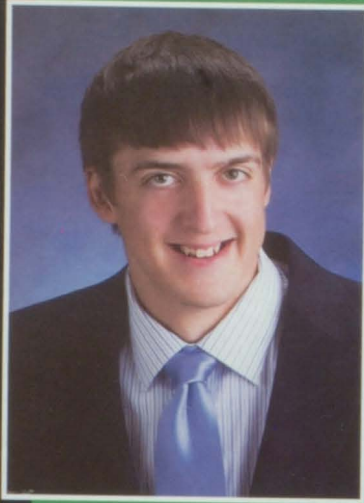

Jen plans on going to either the University of Nebraska at Omaha or St. Mary's to major in Biology. Her biggest accomplishment was winning the 2005 Volleyball State Championship against Lincoln Luthern.

AMBERLE
ZUERLEIN

Megan Zuerlein

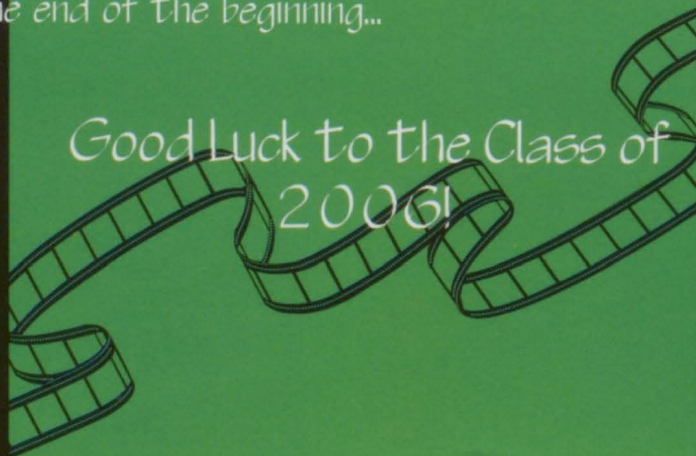

Megan plans to attend the University of Nebraska at Lincoln and double major in Interior Design and Art. Her favorite memory over the last four years has been her art classes and pottery.

Megan Ashley Zuerlein

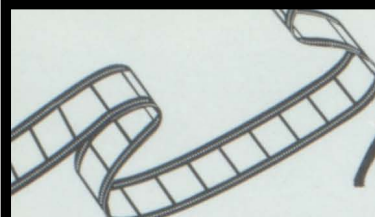

The class of 2006 has always been known as "the good class". The 62 students have excelled in academics, athletics, and the arts. Through the years they have had their ups and downs, but in the end their struggles have brought them closer. Having bonfires has made a huge impact on their last year together. New friendships that were started with only one year left will last a lifetime. As they go their separate ways they will carry the memories they have shared into the future. Even though they must leave behind their friends and the places they have come to know, the show must go on. This is only the end of the beginning...

Good Luck to the Class of 2006!

Most Likely to...

- Kendall Backman- have kids the same age as her brothers and sisters.
- Joey Beauvais- OD on Diet Coke.
- John Bierbower- think people hate him because he is black.
- Ashley Bowns- stay stuck in the 60's without ever being there in the first place.
- Kate Cheloha- open a library full of stolen Scotus books.
- Shayla Christiansen- repeat kindergarten because she never mastered the indoor voice.
- Kyle Clarey- invent the XXX...XXXL T-shirt.
- Jessie Daley- go to the emergency room for a paper cut.
- Kristina Flint- what?!? Kristina and Ben are going out?
- Amy Frauendorfer- raise pigs as pets.
- Michael Gokie- be a Dallas Cowboys Cheerleader.
- Jen Haney- have her kids names be abbreviations.
- Joe Hanus- become the CEO of Microsoft and still have everyone think he works at Runza.
- Kelly Ingram- to go to school with her kids because she loves school that much.
- Lauren Jablonski- argue with everyone!!... even people who agree with her.
- Josh Jepsen- star in Malibu's Most Wanted 2.
- Chad Joehum- not follow his Senior prophecy because he doesn't conform to anything.
- Katie Klimes- scold us all at our high school reunion.
- Andria Kobus- end up staying in Columbus and living at home because her parents won't let her leave.
- Jessica Koza- have a six-pack and be the most physically fit person in our class from laughing.
- Autumn Kresha- find 500 different uses for toilet paper.
- Jessica Kuehler- become a housewife, mother of three, and a famous singer before the rest of us graduate college.
- Steph Laudenklos- marry Ted Nugent.
- Steph Levos- purposely fail her Senior year so she can come back and finish her Senior Tennis season.
- Chelsea Liss- have a panic attack when she can't hand out papers in college.
- Sarah Marik- think every boy at her college is hot.
- Justin McPhillips- still be amazed with his cell phone five years from now.
- Tyler Micek- to go streaking... even if no one else will.
- Brian Miksch- lean back.
- Michelle Moore- be diagnosed with hyperactive disorder.

Pat Morrison- start an illegal street racing gang and be the only person in it.

Jill Paprocki- always go for the bad boys.

Reannon Paprocki- find her husband on an "almost" blind date.

Whitney Prokupek- have a complete turnaround and be the most outspoken person in college.

Eric Puckett- see Chris's prophecy.

Matt Raimondo- grow a mustache that rivals his dad's.

Zach Ramaekers- make more money going to college than the rest of us will make 10 years into our career.

Jim Rawhouser- get the Heisman renamed "The Rawhouser".

Shane Reardon- work in a coal mine so he can call himself a true West Virginian.

Jared Rickert- date every female on his college campus.

Thomas Roth- become a priest.

Hailee Sals- never go to college because she can't find her way out of Columbus.

Justin Schaf- challenge Bobby Fisher to a chess match.

Chris Schumacher- see Eric's prophecy.

Luke Scribner- major in Speech in college.

Cole Seckel- be the first person inducted into the National Boy Scouts Hall of Fame.

Josh Smith- join the circus.

Meghann Smith- be America's Next Top Model.

Nikki Sobotka- reinvent the meaning of "mouthy".

April Spies- be heard saying "It's a zero tomorrow? Okay,...I'll do it tonight."

Melissa Steiner- be the first female James Bond.

Ben Svatora- replace Colonel Sanders as the posterboy for KFC.

Zeph Swope- swallow an amphibian.

Jamie Tooley- get an award for being Jamie Tooley.

Clint Torozon- get an award for having the best receiver ever.

Kim Whalen- marry someone because she couldn't say NO!

Kristen Wolff- legally change her name to 'Denim Dan'.

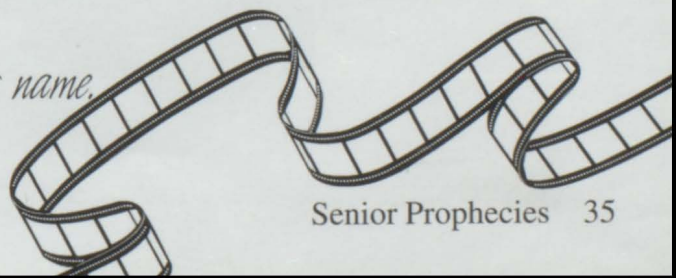

T.J. Wrigley- compare answers to a telephone survey with his neighbor.

Sam Zabawa- write an autobiography.

Austin Zach- brag about memorizing the dictionary and be too cool to care what other people think.

Amberle Zuerlein- date only guys with four letters in their name.

Megan Zuerlein- never admit another guy is cute because no guy is as cute as her boyfriend.

Senior R.R.

What did you think of this year's Senior Retreat?

"My emotions blossomed as we talked about our experiences."

-Zeph Swope

"I cry myself to sleep every night just thinking about it."

-Thomas Roh

"I got my feet wet!"

Chad Jochum

"I thought that it was cool when everyone cheered me on as I climbed the power pole."

-April Spies

"I was worried about the day at the beginning, but by the end of the day I didn't want to go home."

-Michelle Moore

Retreat

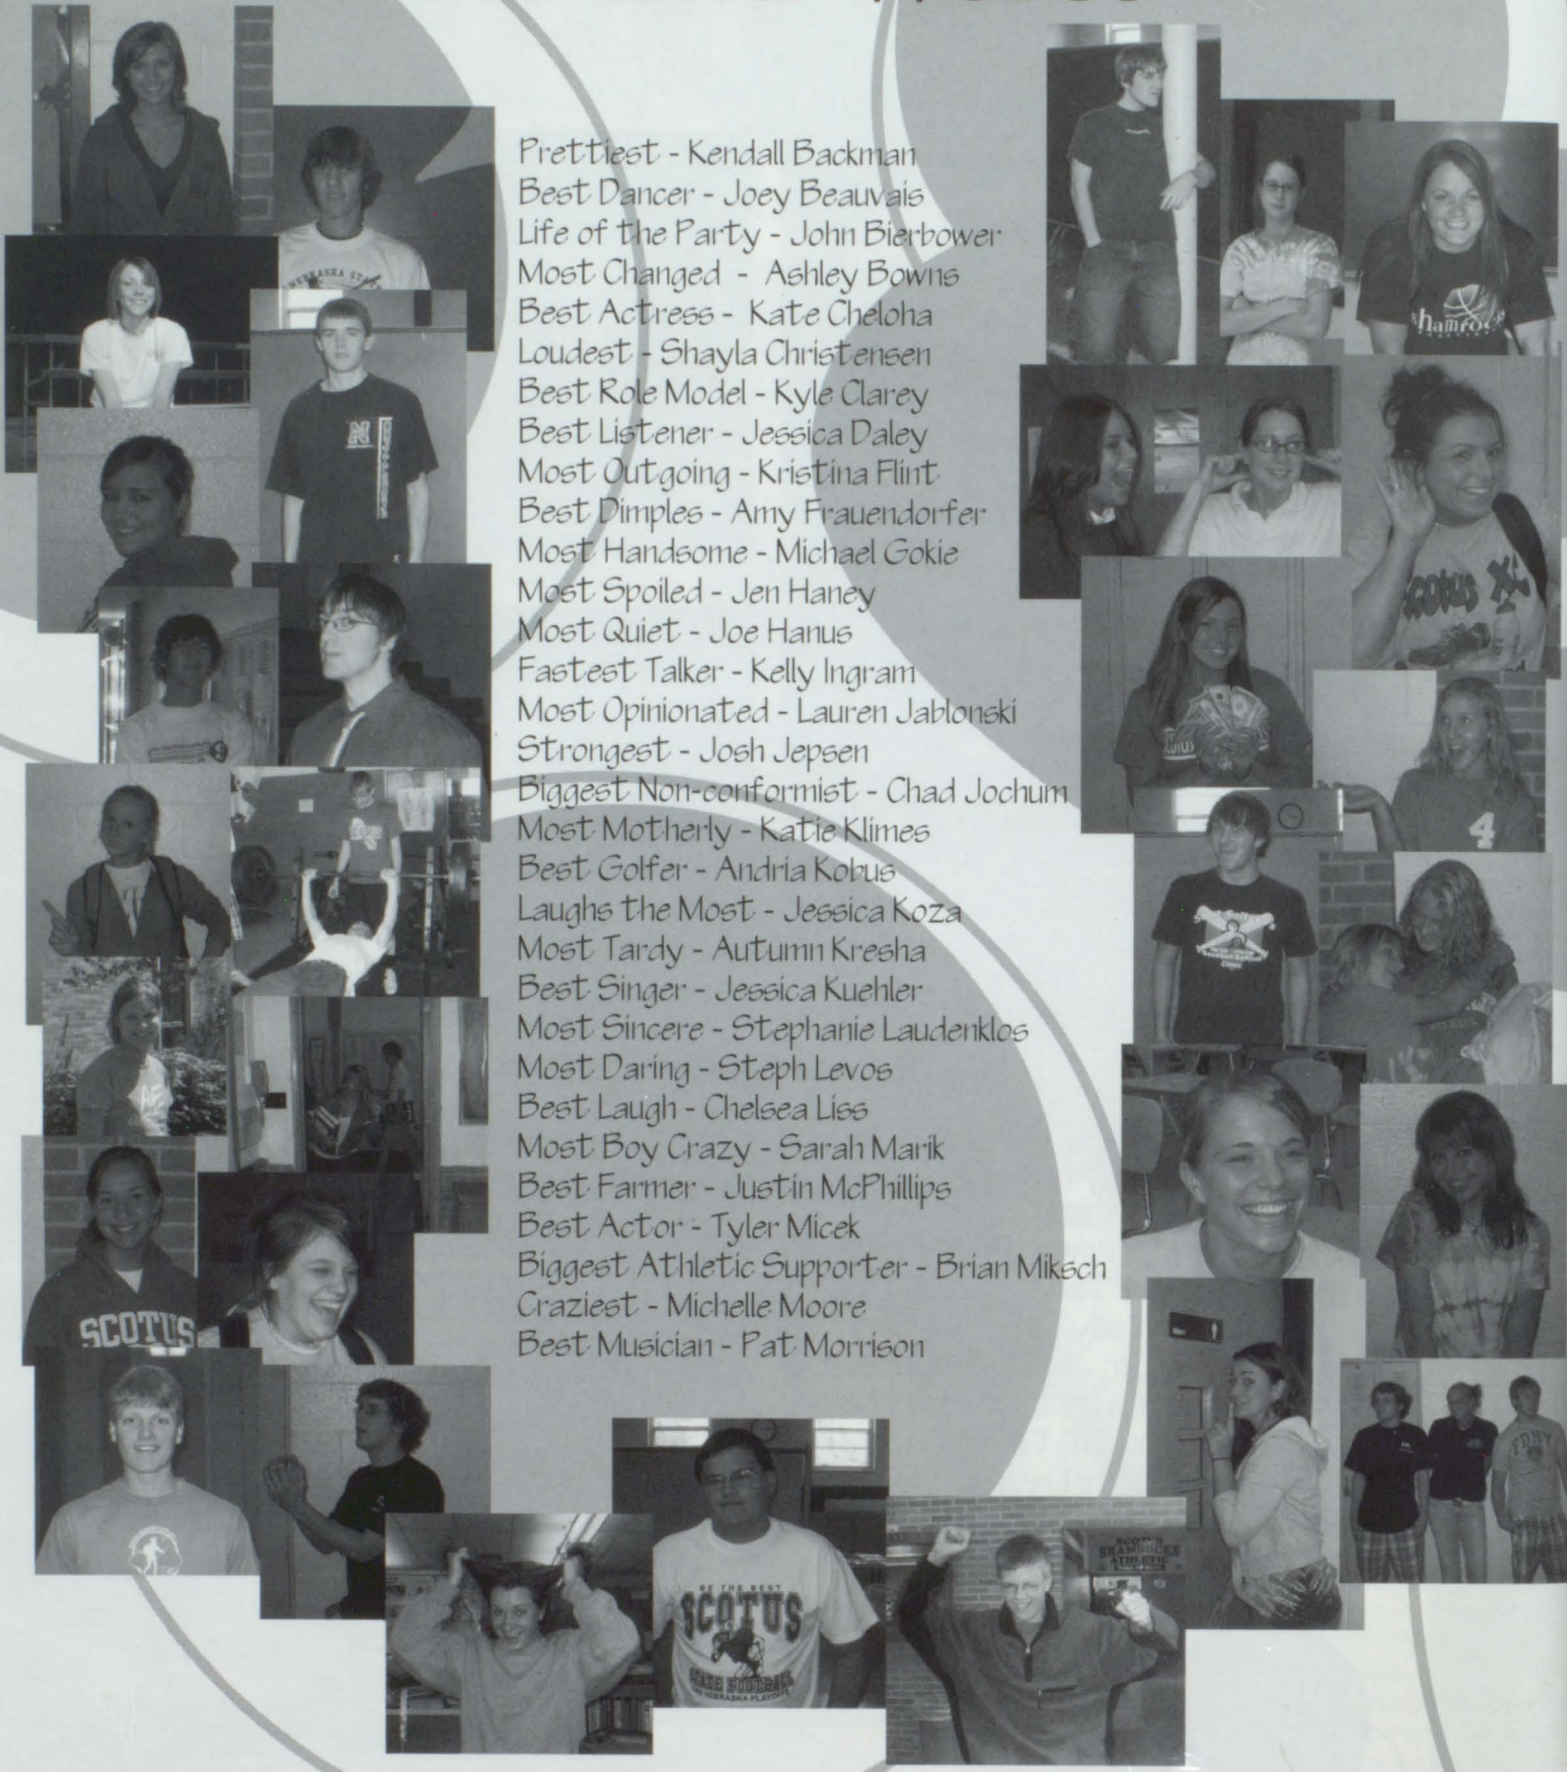

Instead of reminiscing about the past, the Senior Class discussed how they could come together even more in their last year. The students had high hopes for what the day would bring, but none exceeded what they actually experienced. The focus of the day was overcoming fear which was conquered by participating in the trust fall and the power pole. There was plenty of free time for the Seniors to "accidentally" throw other people in the water. After lunch, every student received a letter from their parents. This brought tears to the eyes of many. The retreat ended with mass which closed the day but opened the possibilities of the future.

Academics

Now Showing: Old School

(a-ke...ks)

Math, Science, Social Studies

The Math, Science and Social Studies teachers have been working hard this year to fill students minds with knowledge and wisdom, from how to solve $2x = 4$ in Algebra I, to dividing out the square to derivatives in Calculus. History students are learning about the Civil War, again. While physiology and biology students are learning about the circle of life from Mr. Younger. The Math, Science, and Social Studies teachers seem to make it interesting everyday. This Old School, got a lot of new faces this year, but the teachers have been just as great as always.

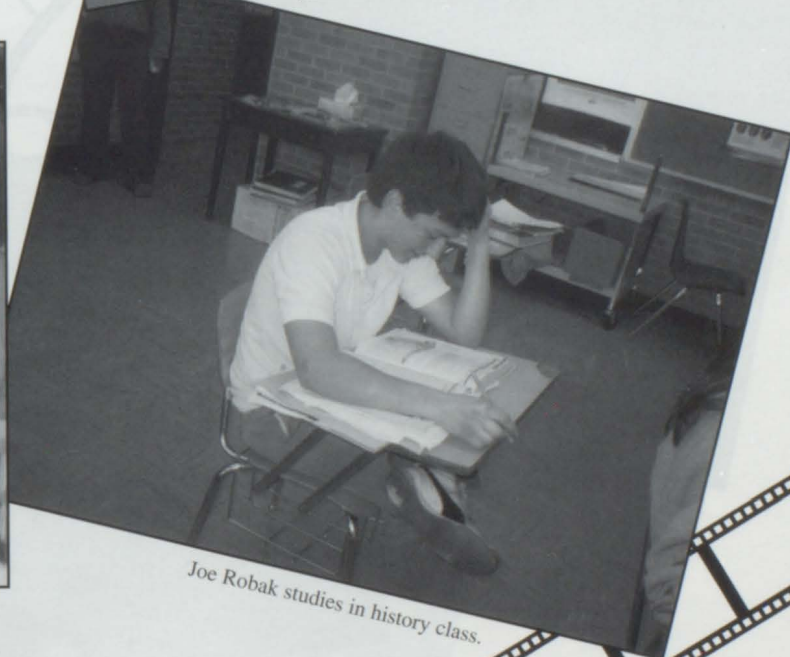

Joel Fuchs dozes off in geography class.

Mr. O writing on the board in Geography class.

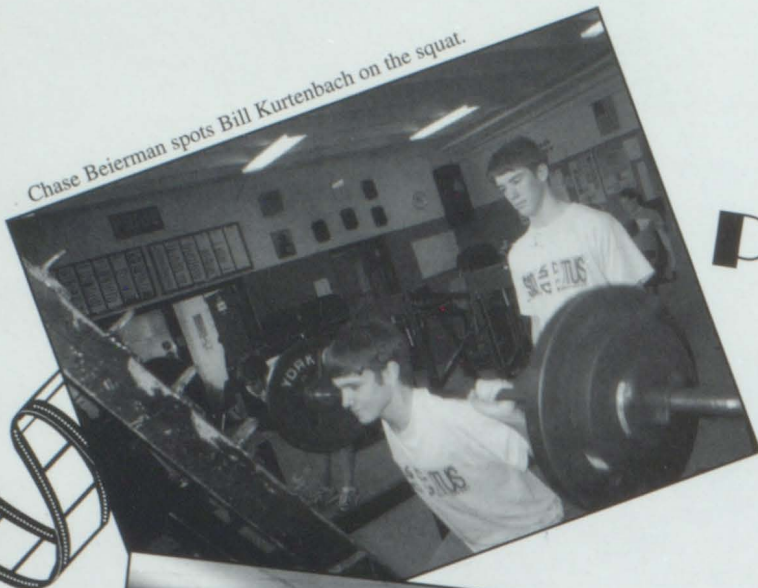

Mrs. Blaser helps a students with an assignment.

Joe Robak studies in history class.

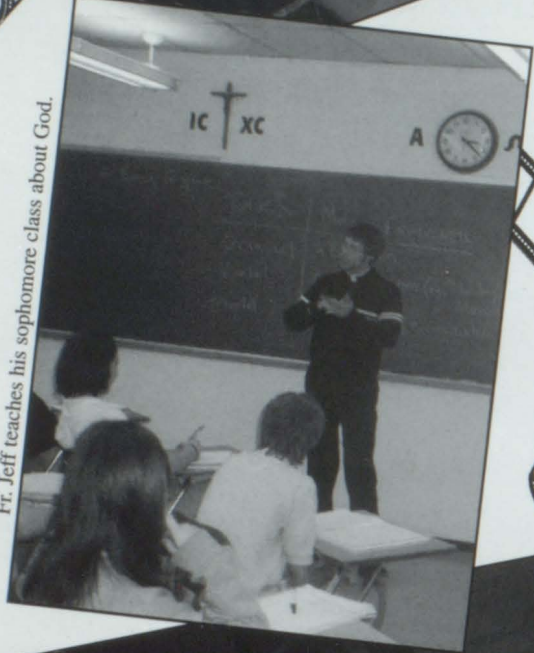

Religion, Art, Physical Education

Chase Beierman spots Bill Kurtenbach on the squat.

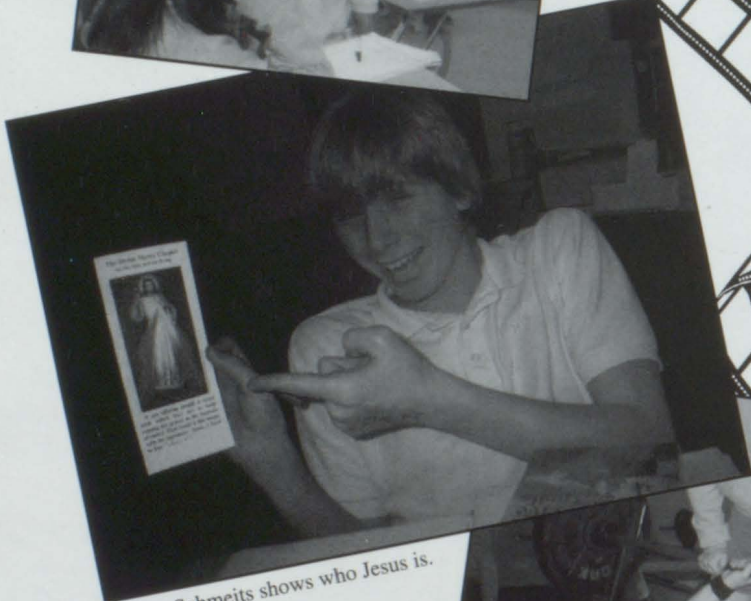

The Religion, Art, and P.E. classes bring a new school atmosphere to this Old School every year. If it is playing Noodle Hockey in Wellness with Mrs. Janet Tooley, or making works of art in Art class with Mrs. Nancy Shadle, the experiences are never the same. Because learning about God never gets old it was a fun year.

Fr. Jeff teaches his sophomore class about God.

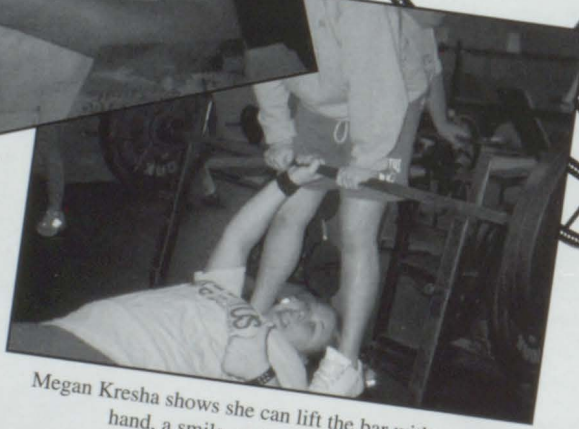

Devin Iwan, Alex Beller, and Hunter Birkel glaze clay whistles in Art class.

The new faces of Mrs. Angie Rusher and Mr. Troy Shivley gave a new flare to this Old School. And even with a new name, Mrs. Connie Gibson, still gave the same authority in her Spanish classes. But Mrs. Kelly Schaad and Mrs. Carmen Johnson kept it cool with their down to earth vibe.

The Shamrock volleyball team had an exceptional season this year. After losing the State Championship in 2004, Scotus came out wanting revenge on the Lincoln Lutheran Warriors. The season started off a little shaky with three losses, but the Shamrocks ended the season (26-3) with the C-1 State Championship. Every player on the team was very focused and had great work ethic. With Kelly Clarkson's "Breakaway" as a theme song, everyone worked hard to become better. There were four seniors on the team that showed incredible leadership throughout the season, leading by example and by being vocal. Along with team chemistry, an extra boost from the student body helped lead the team to an extremely successful season. At the State Semi-Finals when the Shamrocks were down 7-12 in the final game, they dug deep to find what it took to advance to the state finals where they stunned Lincoln Lutheran to win the C-1 State Championship.

FOOTBALL

The Scotus Shamrocks ended the season with a 4-5 record, matching the 2004 season in terms of wins and losses. Head Coach Roger Kreinke's thoughts on the season: "The Seniors displayed good leadership and always came to the field to improve. Josh Smith and Eric Puckett were some of the most spirited people I have ever coached. They sported great work ethic and displayed the leadership qualities the coaches were looking for. The season had its high and low points. I looked forward to coaching everyday with this team. They will, without a doubt, be missed."

The heart proved to outwit the body throughout the season as the football team often lacked physical size to match that of its opponents. The support at the games was outstanding and helped pick up the Shamrocks. Through all the ups and down, with a revenge win against Milford and a heart breaking loss to Lakeview, the Scotus Shamrocks had an unforgettable year.

Girls Golf

This year the Girls' Golf Team started off with a smack with Tanya Neidbalski coaching them for another year. There were seven great young girls who participated in twelve meets, and they had lots of fun. They had a good season despite only returning two letter winners. The Girls' Golf Team improved, worked, and played well together. The team was able to keep old traditions alive with goodie bags and Dairy Queen stops. Liz Zabawa was the most spirited player and kept everyone laughing, while Andria Kobus, who led the team as the only senior, pushed everyone to do their best. She went on to compete at state and placed 12th.

Girls' Cross Country

The Girls' Cross Country team had an amazing year. All the girls improved their times with the help of their new head coach and training tactics. Not only did they improve their times but also their relationships with each other. With half as many girls on the team as last year, it gave a great opportunity to get to know each other extremely well. The biggest shocker of the season was taking first place at Districts in Logan View and making it to State again. No one brought home individual medals at State, but they ran their hearts out and brought back wonderful memories.

The Boys' Cross Country team has always lived in the Girls' Cross Country team's shadow, but this year they emerged victorious. Led by the five Senior guys who "made the season interesting and successful," they finished the season with three first place and three second place plaques for the trophy case. It takes hours of practice and two-a-days to get in shape to run even more than "The Green Mile", but perseverance paid off this year.

Softball

"C-Town on three," roaring from the dugout starts a typical game for the Softball team's season. Ironically, the girls' Softball team went through the season both shutting out three teams and getting shut out by three teams to finish 17-18. Led by the lone Senior from Scotus, Autumn Kresha, they advanced to the highlight of the year beating Norfolk in the conference semi-finals to earn a spot in the championship game. Sadly, they lost to Grand Island, but it had no effect on their positive attitudes. Other players from Scotus included Tammy Kozak, Natasha Scholz, Jaisa Gutierrez, Leslie Douglas, Molly Jones, and Megan Kresha, who all played hard to represent C-Town superbly.

Brent Albracht was the lone man on the wrestling team this year. He wrestled Junior Varsity like he has the past three years of high school. Brent not only showed his skills on the mat, but also his writing skills. An article published in the Columbus Telegram was written by our very own Brent Albracht discussing the controversy on drastic weight loss that wrestlers go through. With another year of experience, he hopes to make Varsity next year.

Strikes lined the scoreboards this year with Shayla Christiansen and Ashley Paprocki on the team. Their highlight of the season was coming together as not only a team, but as friends. They placed first at the Bellevue, Columbus Boulevard and Westbrook Lanes Tournaments. At the end of the season, the lady bowlers earned the third place spot at state. Tears were flowing everywhere even from their coaches eyes. It was a perfect ending for Seniors Amanda McCarthy and Shayla Christiansen.

Swimming

This year's Swim Team had five Scotus athletes on it. Nicole Sobotka was the one senior from Scotus along with two juniors, Anna Boeding and Meg Harrington, one sophomore, Sarah Jackson, and one freshman, Mo Jackson. They all represented Scotus well as Nicole and Anna went to State in the 400M relay. As many Swim Fans watched, the girls swam their best relay time. Although they did not place, the trip to State was a great honor and a great way to end the season.

With only one returning starter, many people thought that this basketball season was going to be a rocky road. However, the Shamrocks played their hearts out as they started the season 10-0. The team held only four seniors who contributed to the team through leadership and hard work. The team was united and displayed great team chemistry. The Shamrocks survived Sub Districts as they knocked off Boone Central and Madison. VARSITY BOYS' BASKETBALL

The Scotus Shamrocks ended the season with a 2-18 record, doubling the win total of the 2005 season. The Shamrocks were coached under first year coach, Brett Rusher. Coach Rusher commented that the effort and attitude was solid in practice every day. He was also pleased how the Shamrocks competed each game and never would give up. Most notably, he was pleased with the 2nd half comebacks in 3 of the last 5 games of the season in which the Shamrocks won 2.

The Shamrocks struggled throughout the season, but finally came out victorious, picking up a couple wins up at the end of the year. The first win came against Lincoln Lutheran at home, and the court was stormed with a mass of the student body celebrating the big win. The second win occurred in the first round playoff game against David City Public at Columbus High. It gave the Shamrocks some momentum going into the second round, but not enough to pull off the big upset.

Girls' Tennis

The 2005-2006 Girls' Tennis season started out with many indoor practices and match cancelations. The weather didn't start to become playable until the first of April. The Girls' Tennis Team consisted of 16 girls this year, three from Scotus: Sarah Marik, Stephanie Levos, and Ellen Rambour. Stephanie Levos went down on the team's third dual and she tore her ACL. The girls were a stronger team but they were weak mentally. A highlight of this year's season was the less excruciating conditioning. They had six members get to state with two of the teams competing in the second round. The Girls' Tennis Team for 2005-2006 really made a racket!

The Big Green Girls' Soccer

Team comes together to surpass expectations.

Despite the loss of talented seniors, the Girls' Soccer Team reached great expectations this year. After a tough-fought season, the girls made their way to the district tournament. They annihilated Hastings 6-1 in the district finals after sealing the win against York in the semifinals. The victory sent the Girls' Soccer Team to the State Tournament for the 11th year in a row along with the 11th consecutive District Championship. They played Schuyler in the first round of the State Tournament. After a 6-0 win, the Scotus girls advanced to the semi-finals where they played their final game of the year losing to Lincoln Pius X. The Shamrocks only had one senior, Jen Haney, on their roster, so they should come back strong next year.

There were a few new faces on the Boys' Soccer Team this year. One including the new head coach. John Brezenski, a 1998 graduate from Scotus, took over the Boys' Soccer Program this year. There was much excitement for him to be added to the program, and he was a very successful addition. The Boys' Team improved dramatically from prior years and ended with a 14-6 record and an appearance at the State Tournament. After the boys crushed Hastings 5-2 in the district final, they were on to state where they faced Schuyler in the first round. They beat Schuyler 4-1 and advanced to the semi-final game where they met Lincoln Pius X. The game was a battle the whole way through and ended in double over time as the Pius Thunderbolts knocked in the game winning goal with three minutes left. The Boys' Soccer Team showed great improvement and hope to continue the success in the future.

Track and Field

The Scotus Boys' and Girls' Track Teams had successful seasons in 2006 as both teams sent members to state. Coach Tooley said she was not sure how the team would fair due to early injuries and said about the team, "Everyone really stepped up and showed great improvement in their marks leading to conference and district team championships and 9 state qualifiers in 12 events!" The girls won every meet they attended this year except for the Shamrock Relays, including close wins at the Conference meet held at the home track and at districts in Norfolk. Many school records were shattered throughout the season for the girls.

The boys finished strong, in the middle of the pack each meet under a new head coach, Jeff Ohnoutka. They were held together by five solid seniors: Jim Rawhouser, Jared Rickert, Michael Gokie, Thomas Roh, and Cole Seckel. New freshman records were set as Callen Schwank and Jordan Janda timed a 11.3 in the 100, Callen Schwank in the 200 at 23.2, and Lucas Backman at 10'6" in the Pole Vault.

The season was topped off by great performances at the state meet. The girls managed to score 30.5 total points and place 5th at the state meet held at Burke Stadium.

Both coaches were pleased with the senior leadership and the example set for the underclassmen. Also, both coaches found districts to be one of the most memorable moments of the year as many great performances emerged from the meet, and the girls team tied for 1st with Pierce. A highlight in the year came as the boys and girls teams took 1st at the Boone Central Quadrangular. Traditions that were kept alive included "team meetings" at Dairy Queen, team swims after practice, and the girls' cheer, "Our House." A new one came out of the season as some guys included the Prayer to Saint Michael in their shoe as they did battle out on the track. Overall, success found its way onto the track and into the field in the 2006 season.

Cheerleading

Bring it On

Kendall Backman, the only senior on the squad, lead the Cheerleaders in a fine year. With a returning sponsor, Mrs. Belitz and new uniforms, the girls finally got back in the routine. Throughout the year everyone showed their school spirit and dedication to leading the Shamrocks to victory. At games the crowd could always count on the Cheerleaders to have a smile on their faces ready to cheer their hearts out. Also the Cheerleading set up entertaining pep rallies for every season, including student/faculty games which always got tons of laughs. For the cheerleaders the 2005-2006 school year was all about building spirit, working together, and having fun.

Center Stage Flag Corps

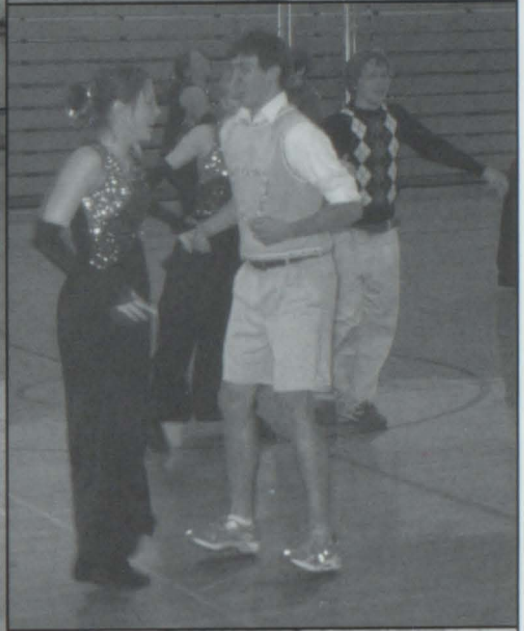

This year's Flag Corps had 14 members who performed at numerous football and basketball games to provide half time entertainment for the Shamrock crowd. Captain Kelly Ingram lead the girls to a successful season starting with a choreography camp in August and new routines throughout the year. The 2005-2006 Flag Corps also had an astounding and rewarding marching season winning an award during the Hastings Harvest of Harmony Parade.

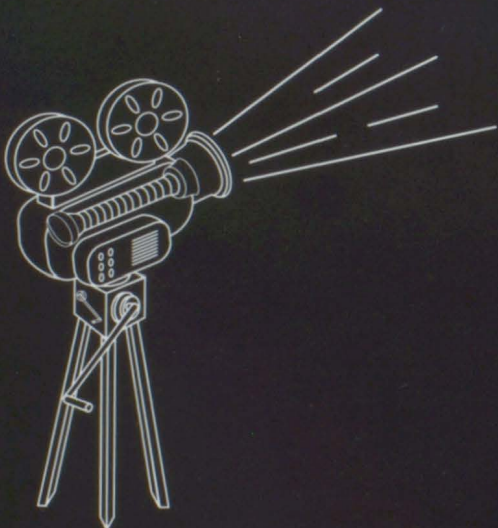

Flag Corp members include Schalise Vancura, Molly Schacher, Lauren Schumacher, Kate Cheloha, Kristin Wrubel, Abby Placzek, Sara Pandorf, Jen Fisher, Jackie Schwank, Lizzie Powers, Michaela Duffy, Anne Price, Andrea Moore, and Kelly Ingram.

Sadie Hawkins' Dance

This year the Flag Corps got the crowd on their feet cheering with the Sadie Hawkins' Guy-Girl Dance. The Guys involved included: Joey Beauvais, Michael Gokie, Tyler Micek, Pat Morrison, Jimmy Rawhouser, Jared Rickert, Zeph Swope, Mark Siegel, Jacob Staroscik, Eric Sinovic, Cody Soulliere, Nathan Hotovy, and Nichalos Raimondo.

The Shamrock

Band

Starting with the Columbus Days Parade in August, the band started a very good marching season. They also received an excellent rating in the Columbus Marching Festival and a superior in the Hastings Melody Roundup. They finished up the marching season with the first place trophy at the St. Patrick's Day Parade. The Christmas concert featured "Celebration" and "Themes from the Nutcracker". The dinner concert had an Hawaiian theme, and the band played Hawaii 5-0, and Copa Cabana. As the district season rolled around the band prepared for the group performance and the ensembles and solos. This year seven ensembles and ten solos were performed at districts along with the group performance. The band received a 1 rating for the second year in a row. The seniors were very sad as their last band activity came to an end with the spring concert. The spring concert consisted of everything that was performed at districts. It was a successful year with many returning members looking forward to next year.

"Raise your Voice" Shamrock Singers

This year the Shamrock Singers consisted of a group of 15 girls, and much talent. There were five seniors in the group, three juniors, three sophomores, and four freshman. The group had a successful year singing jazz songs from various composers; they also got a one at District Music for the first time in four years. With all the dedication the group put forth they completely deserved it. The girls joined the Jazz choir, some not having any experience, and finished out the year as a choir family and will have many memories to share throughout the years.

It is Spring of September 1964 in the principal's office of Central High School, and there are students, parents and faculty with a wide variety of personalities. This school is not that different from Scotus; students mirror the teachers, get into trouble, and have a lot of fun along the way. Where, just like Scotus, students are sometimes saying "What a Life." There were many old faces on stage this year along with many talented new faces. The play was directed by Ms. E. J. Gardener and Fr. Jeff Loseke. The Fall Play was performed for the first time in years and was a great success. The Scotus Fine Arts department has decided to keep it a

The boy responsible was none other than George Bigelow, played by Lance Schmitt. George is a great athlete but a suck-up to all of the teachers. He stole them to get a tuxedo for the Spring Dance, and framed it on Henry Aldrich, played by Nathan Hottovy, who already has enough problems of his own.

Schindler's List

One-Acts

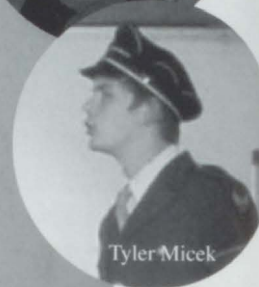

"Will you hand over the Jews, or will you force me to cooperate?" This year's One-Act was titled No Fading Star, a drama about two Jewish children who were hiding in a convent from the Nazi's Third Reich. One of the Jewish children wanted to go back to Baden to have his Barmitzvah. The sisters had to improvise before the Nazis showed up.

This was another year filled with hard work for all the participants with a complex play that had endured many different beginnings and endings. The actors and actresses also had to learn German and Yiddish accents. On top of everything else they were skating on thin ice with a time limit which meant more cutting and memorizing. All the hard work payed off for the Conference performance. Unfortunately, Scotus received third at districts not allowing them to be qualified for state. Hopefully next year they will finally take home a well deserved first place at Districts and finally qualify for State.

Theatre II

2006 was the first year in Scotus history for a Theatre II class. In the past there has always been a Drama II class and a Theatre class for those who wanted to participate in One-Acts. The Drama II class would be offered one year and Theatre would be the next. This would allow students to participate in One-Acts for two years. This year was different. There were three individuals who had been involved in acting in One-Acts their Sophomore, Junior, and Senior years. These three actresses were Reannon Paprocki, Meghann Smith, and Kate Cheloha. All three of them received numerous outstanding actress awards during competition in their acting career at Scotus. They also wanted to act in One-Acts their Senior year. In order to accommodate their needs, Scotus created a Theatre II class.

Look Who's Talking

Speech Team

With a theme of "Mullets and Mohawks," the Scotus Speech Team breezed through yet another season. The season started off with the question of whether or not there would be a season for the Scotus Speakers. With the return of Mrs. Borgman and also Mrs. Bernt, this year's team was made up of quite a few "youngin's". Captains Lauren Jablonski, Jessica Daley, and Kate Cheloha led the team to receiving second place at Conference. Only two participants went on to state to become medalists including one of the Captains, Lauren Jablonski. Jablonski recieved second place in Persuasion and Katie Schuth recieved third place in Informative. The team ended on a higher note this season with high hopes for next year.

Into the Woods

Scotus Musical

This year's musical took an exciting adventure "into the woods and out of the woods." The adventure starred many fairytale characters such as the baker and the baker's wife, Cinderella and her family, the Witch and Rapunzel, Little Red Riddinghood, Jack, his mother, and the giant, and many other mythical characters. The narrator told the story of their lives, wishes, hopes, and troubles, until he was pulled into the story himself.

Cinderella's evil stepmother (Reannon Paprocki) criticizes Cinderella (Kristin Wrubel) and her out-of-reach dreams.

Fr. Jeff Loseke and Ms. E.J. Gardner were the directors of this year's musical. There were eight seniors on the cast including Jessica Kuehler, Lauren Jablonski, Luke Scribner, Kate Cheloha, Pat Morrison, Brian Miksch, and Reannon Paprocki. There were three seniors on the tech crew. They were T.J. Wrigley, Tyler Micek, and Matt Raimando. After three performances they deemed the musical a success. Hopefully, they will be happy now, happy hence, and happy everafter.

The narrator (Mark Seigel) gets into character before his last outstanding performance.

Thespians

This year's theme for Thespian initiation week was Candy Land. The initiates dressed up as numerous different characters on the board game. Some examples are: Lord Licorice, King Kandy, Princess Frostine, Mr. Mint, and Jolly.

Besides initiation week, the Thespians were also involved in their annual VFW recorded speeches and helping with the Eighth Grade Plays.

There are ten returning Seniors to Thespian Group. They are: Kate Cheloha, Lauren Jablonski, Autumn Kresha, Jessica Kuehler, Stephanie Levos, Tyler Micek, Reannon Paprocki, Meghann Smith, Melissa Steiner, and T.J. Wrigley. Other returning members are: Anna Boeding, Josh Ryan, Molly Schacher, Katie Schueth, Lauren Schumacher, Eric Sinovic, Kaitlynn Sonderman, Elizabeth Suess, and Katie Wozny. There were seven initiates this year. They were: Sam Wemhoff, Noah Swartz, Nathan Hotovy, Anne Price, Lauren Wright, Luke Scribner (senior), and Aaron Wrigley. Hopefully they will carry on all the Thespian traditions.

Mock Trial

This year's Mock "Trail" teams centered their work around preparing a civil case. The case focused on the William Jennings Bryan Public High School Student Council election. Pat Christianson was one of the students running for president based on his religious beliefs. The Principal, Dr Eddie/y Cation refused to let Pat run because of the message he felt Pat was sending to the other students. Based on his First Amendment rights, Pat took William Jennings Bryan to court.

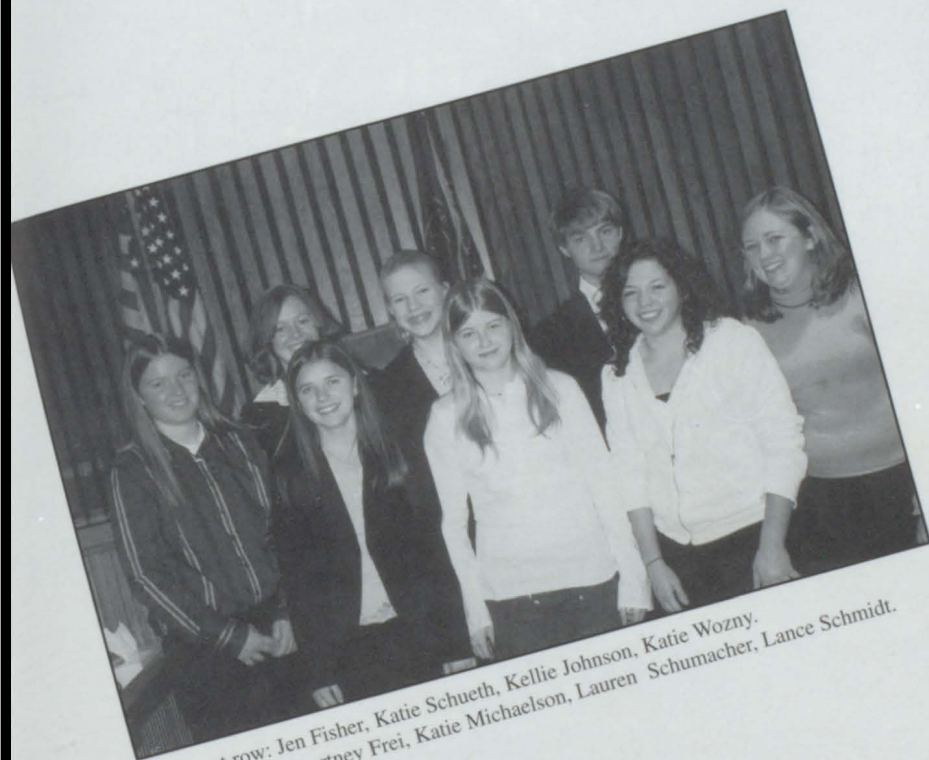

Carrie Smoots took over the role of Mock Trial coach for the first time this year leading the Junior and Senior teams to many firsts. While the Senior team had more experience, it was their first year with an actual lawyer coach, Bo Botelho. This was both helpful and frustrating because they learned new things, but were forced to change from their old habits. In Regionals the Seniors advanced to the second round before losing a hard fought battle to Twin River.

The Juniors on the other hand made it all the way through Regionals to advance to state for the first time in seven years. When asked what led them to their success, the general consensus was their lawyer coach Gene Schumacher. Katie Wozny and Katie Michaelson, two members of the Junior Mock Trial Team, commented that they would not have been able to do it without the help and support of Gene.

Looking back, both teams had very successful years. The Seniors will move on happy with what they were able to accomplish, while the Juniors will come back fighting next year, hoping for another chance at state.

The Student Council was busy with the agenda for the 2005-2006 year. The group changed hands as Mrs. Lahm took over the reigns from last year's sponsor, Mrs. Zanardi. The group attended the Fall Leadership Workshop held at Columbus Lakeview. There they experienced the motivational group known as R5. The council thought they were so good that they got the group to come to Scotus in the spring. Some new changes that the council helped get going were the 9 period day that began this year as well as some clothing issues such as the admittance of open-back shoes. One of the main projects the group headed up was Mr. Shamrock, which turned out to be a huge success.

FBLA

Members anxiously await the results of their hard work while at the State Leadership Conference.

This year the Future Business Leaders of America continued their traditional activities while adding new ones. The year started with a tour of BD. They also worked the concession stands at all of the home football games, delivered Halloween and Thanksgiving Day favors to Mory's Haven and Beverly Health Care, and treated the Scotus staff with Secret Santas. This was the first year for the Senior Citizen Fall Ball held at The Senior Center. Area senior citizens joined with FBLA members for an afternoon of music, dancing, and refreshments. This year was also an extremely successful State Leadership Conference for Scotus. They returned to Columbus with five honorable mentions and two national qualifiers. Even though membership was a little slow, FBLA was still very successful.

The First Kid

This year, Tyler Micek and Jamie Tooley were chosen to represent Scotus in Lincoln at the 2005 Cornhusker Boys' and Girls' State. Every year the American Legion hosts a week long event where the top boys and girls from all over the state get together to form a mock government. While there, the participants learn about all levels of government ranging from towns and counties to state. While at Boys' and Girls' State, participants have the opportunity to not only take a more active role in their government, but they have the opportunity to meet hundreds of teens just like them. It is truly an honor for the few that are selected to attend.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' STATE

Jamie Tooley

There were 31 other girls who greeted me when I showed up at my dorm. The 32 of us created the town of McKinley in Girls' State. I was elected as a member of McKinley's City Council. My week was filled with speakers, crazy campaigning, and learning about how our government works. I cried with my new friends as our closing banquet reminded us that our week of fun was over.

Tyler Micek

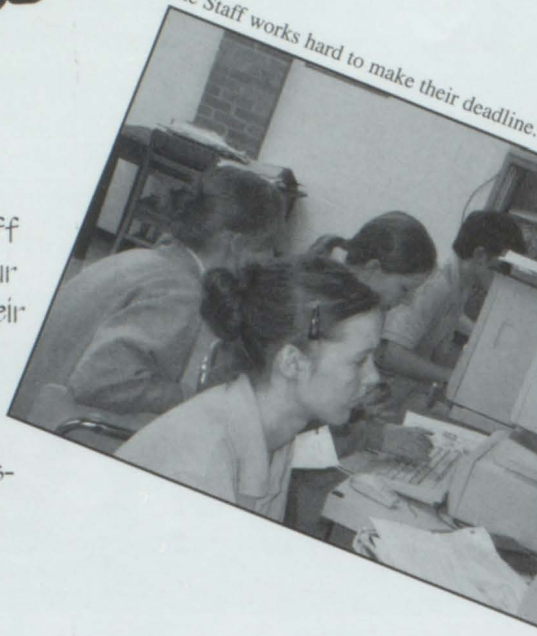

I know going to government camp for a week does not sound like the best way to spend part of your summer, but it was actually really fun. I learned a lot about government while meeting guys from all over the state and competing in elections and athletics. Being elected mayor of my town Manila Bay was a huge honor because that meant that my peers respected me as their leader.

EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION

Saved

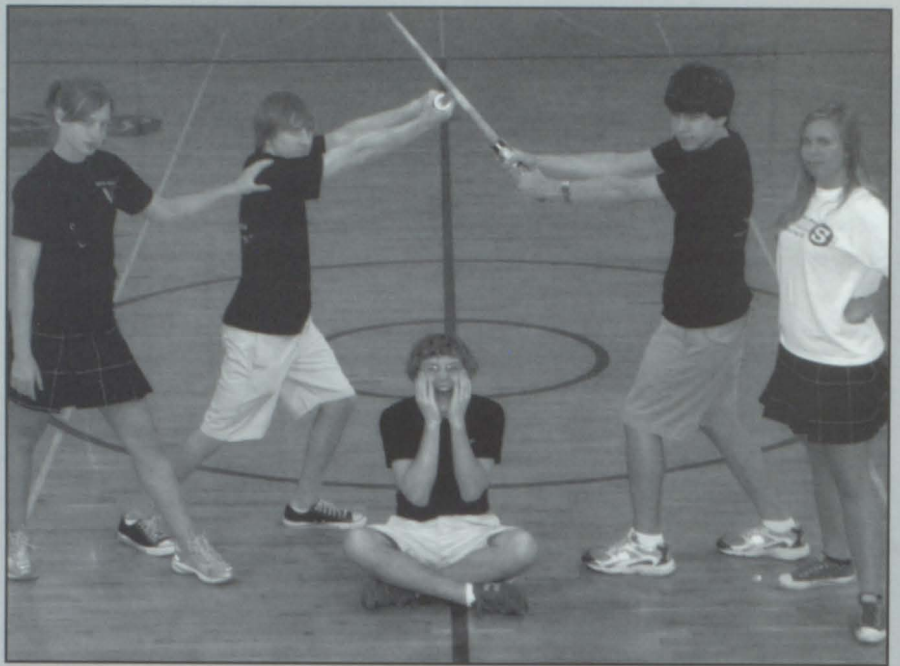

With so many Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion this year people found it hard to volunteer to distribute Communion without the sign up sheet already being full. These students worked hard to show others how to participate in mass. This year an old tradition was brought back to life as we had mass in the court yard. Students sat in the heat as the EMHC's acted out the roles of the Stations of the Cross. As these students distributed the Eucharist they could truly feel Saved by their works for God.

Improv allows theatrical and performance activities to intertwine with prevention messages. Through scenes and a question and answer session, they are able to get out their anti-tobacco, anti-alcohol, anti-peer pressure, anti-anything bad messages. Improv also does recruiting. They go to the three Catholic grade schools talking to the fifth and sixth grades about the benefits of Scotus. REACH is an organization where high school students spend two days at the YMCA learning about drug, alcohol, and peer pressure prevention. After they complete the training, they go out in small groups to area grade schools talking to the fourth graders. The presentations often take the form of skits, small group discussions, movies, or posters. Fourth grade participation is also a must and brought out through prizes (often food). No Limits

Nicholas Raimondo, Pat Morrison, Mrs. Joan Lahm, Tyler Micek, and Kaitlin Roh get ready to go to the first No Limits meeting in Omaha.

Contestants compete for prizes in the trivia game "Healthywood Squares".

The No Limits group asks big tobacco companies to be quiet and stop telling lies about their products.

No Limits is a new group emphasizing anti-tobacco activism at Scotus. Mrs. Lahm took four students interested in living a drug-free lifestyle to a state wide convention in Omaha. There they learned facts about tobacco in the public eye and how tobacco affects the lives of its users and the people around them.

With their new found knowledge and activism, the No Limits group got more students involved and spent time at a Junior High lock-in in March. They played games such as "Healthywood Squares" and "Are You on Target?" that tested participants knowledge about tobacco. There was also a courtroom drama that showed the harmful effects of tobacco products.

During May, the No Limits group was extremely busy. There was a Grim Keeper that informed 31 students of their tobacco related "deaths". They were not allowed to speak to anyone unless they too were "killed" from tobacco. The group later headed to the movie theatre to see just how much tobacco was being advertised in movies. There was also a sit-in at a reasturaunt where there was smoking allowed. The results and statistics were published in the Columbus Telegram to raise awareness of the damages tobacco products cause.

X-MEN

Shamrock Club

S-Club was filled with enthusiasm in the 2005-2006 year. The student body sported their new tie-dyed shirts to sporting events. They also integrated sportsmanship with a sense of school spirit that filled the gyms and fields throughout the year. The traditional fund-raiser of selling pizzas continued this year to support the organization.

*S-Club includes all those who have lettered in sports or fine arts.

Miss Congeniality

Mr. Shamrock

The Mr. Shamrock competition returned for its second instalment in 2006. There were 11 senior guys, no wait, 10 senior guys who fought for the crown through a talent section, interview, and the "Catch Your Dream Girl Outfit."

John Beibower took on Josh for a Slam-dunk-a-thon during their talent portion before showing his true gansta self in order to catch his dream girl.

Josh Jepsen showed his b-ball skills during the dunking contest and changed into his swimsuit because his dream date would be on the beach.

Pat Morrison gave us some sweet beats and rockin' rhyems on his drum set for his talent before catching his dream girl with his natural charm.

Clint Torzan came out as Flavor Flave, clock-necklace and all after playing Michael in a one-on-one basketball game with "drunk goggles."

Michael Gokie strutted his stuff in his grandma's perfume soaked sweater after beating Clint 3-2 in "drunk goggle basketball game."

Zach Ramakers played ringmaster both before and during the show by setting up the music and computers and then juggling an array of objects.

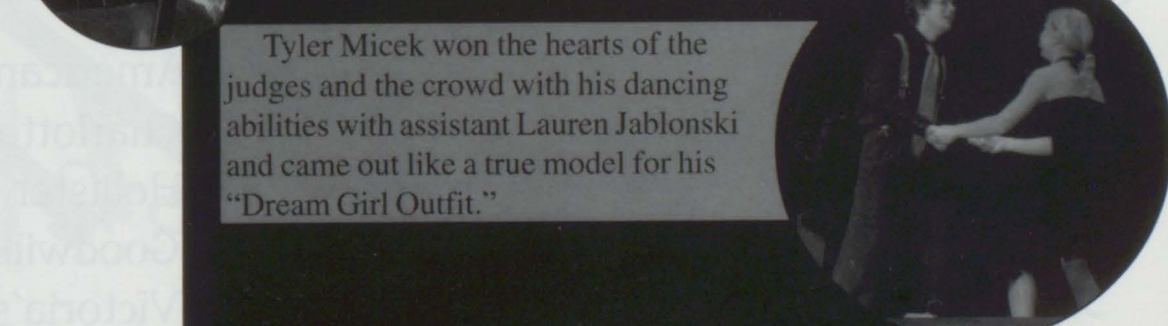

Thomas Roh tied for second runner-up after strumming his guitar strings and showing up David Hasslehoft with his lifeguard uniform and whistle.

Joey Beavias tied for second runner-up after DDRing until his legs nearly gave out. Leather everything was his way of attracting the ladies.

Austin Zach placed first runner-up with his rendition of "Linus and Lucy" on the keyboard. He also dressed as a fisherman to "catch" his girl.

Tyler Micek won the hearts of the judges and the crowd with his dancing abilities with assistant Lauren Jablonski and came out like a true model for his "Dream Girl Outfit."

Judges were Ed Goerlinger (Mr. Fix it), Mrs. Z and Mrs. K (two former Scotus teachers), and Kim Whalen (2005 Homecoming queen).

The contestants anxiously await the results.

Tyler Micek is crowned Mr. Shamrock 2006.

A Cinderella Story

Homecoming Week

From P.J.'s to fairies, this year's Homecoming week was a rocking good time. The Homecoming theme was "A Fairy Tale Romance" which was displayed in the Senior hall. Willy Wonka was seen in the Junior hallway while the Sophomores laid back for the week on "Soph(e)more Beach." Finally the Freshman sugar-coated their hallway with a Candyland theme.

Due to Parent-Teacher Conferences on Monday, students kicked off the week on Friday with Pajama Day. This was strictly Pajama Day, not what you wear to bed day! Then they "Rock n' Rolled" into Tuesday revealing everyone's inner rockstar. The students colored their way into Wednesday with the Freshman wearing pink, Sophomores in white, the Juniors in black, and the Seniors wore blue. Thursday was an enchanted day full of princes and fairies. Finally from green hair to football jerseys, students showed off their school spirit on Friday. It was a happy ending to a magical week.

Fairytale Romance

Homecoming Dance

We started off the magical night with the football team taking care of Madison with a score of 35-6 and getting into the playoffs. Following the game the dazzling candidates headed onto the freezing field. Zepherin Swope and Kimberly Whalen were crowned Homecoming Royalty. After coronation everyone got ready for a night of fairy tales and romance. Even though there were many complaints about the music, everyone seemed to think that the first dance of the year started off on a good "stroke". All night we could see students stroking it to the east and stroking it to the west. From the nervous freshmen stepping into their first dance as high school students, to the seniors saying goodbye to their last homecoming festivities, it was a happy ending.

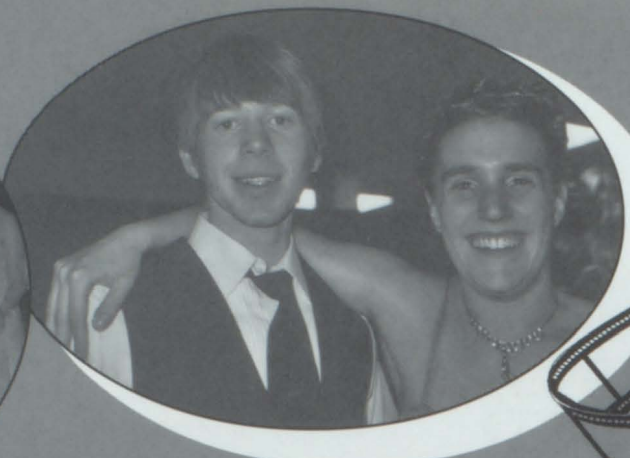

A Night at the Roxbury

Sweetheart

This year's Sweetheart dance started with a cold day. The weather had been wonderful throughout the week, but as usual, when it got to the night of the dance it started to snow. The Sophomores worked for months on the preparations for the dance. They sold the much wanted candy bars to earn money for the dance. As well as decided on the theme "A Night at the Roxbury." The Senior Class voted for the candidates, and the rest of the school made the final decision. Sweetheart King was Shane Reardon and Sweetheart Queen was Autumn Kresha. The rest of the night went well with a few exceptions of the normal mosh pits, and the not-so-normal ceiling tiles getting destroyed. All in all, it was a great night, and one that the Seniors will remember forever.

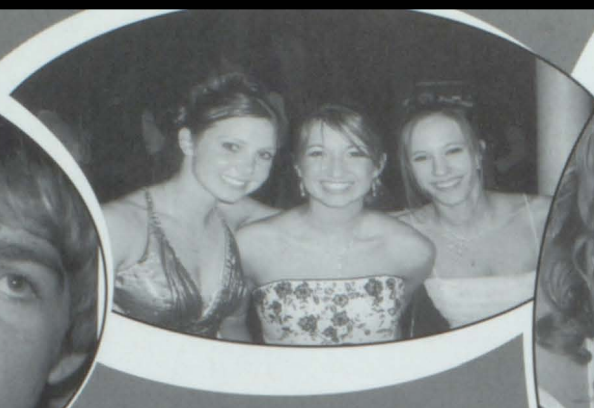

Drop Dead Gorgeous Junior Prom

As they sold, planned, and decorated, the Juniors realized what their first prom entailed. They spent months picking the Arabian Nights theme, and found decorations to go with the night. The day of prom finally arrived and as the girls looked Drop Dead Gorgeous by getting their nails, hair, and tan all finalized, the boys slept at home wondering what the big deal was. They danced the night away and then sped off to post prom to win the major prizes. By the time they got home, the sun was rising and they were wondering where their first prom had gone.

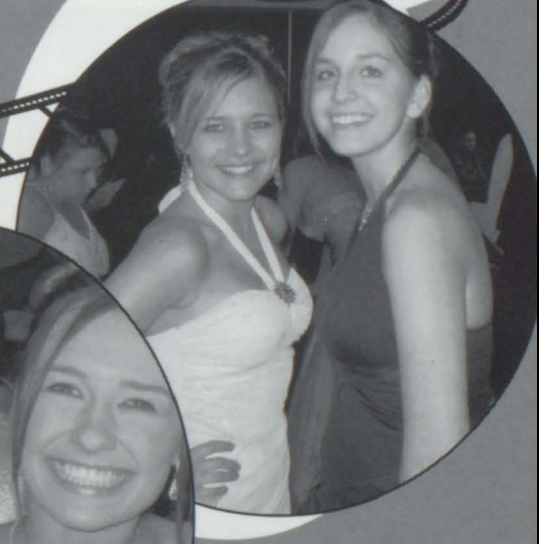

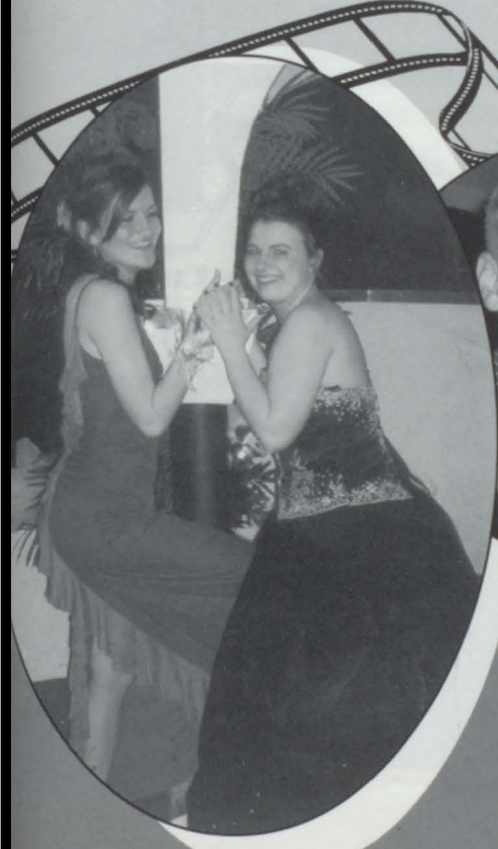

Save the Last Dance

Senior Prom

As the last dance of highschool the Seniors wanted it to be a night they would never forget. They all got ready, took pictures with their dates and headed off to their last dance with the hope of it being the best. They Saved the Last Dance for their "class song" and all gathered in a circle as "Closing Time" finished their memorable night. At post prom their class band, Truth About Greenland, played and then most seniors headed off to the senior bon fire. There they spent the morning reliving old memories of their times spent together and talked about the time they had left and the importance of sticking together.

2006 Graduation

On May 21, 2006, the day many had been waiting their whole life for, the graduating class of 62 gathered together one last time. The cafeteria was full of different emotions from excitement to tears and even some fears of what the future might bring. Afterwards the students headed upstairs to await their turn to walk in. As each student received their diploma their family and friends watched with pride. The Senior Slide Show commemorating them throughout the years ended the ceremony. The students marched out with huge smiles on their faces recalling the past six years and what they would be leaving behind. The Class of 2006 had many great times together and will never forget the memories and friends they made.

Dear Michael,
 We are very proud of you.
 You have accomplished so much and given us so much happiness along the way.
 We pray you never lose your faith, your wonderful smile, or your Texas charm.
 May the Lord continue to bless and guide you on your journey.

Love,
 Mom and Dad

Jessica,
 We are so proud of the person and big sister you've become. You have given us so many wonderful memories. Learn from your mistakes and remember we're always here for you.

Love you,
 Mom, Dad, and Tyler

Megan,
 Congratulations! We expected big things and you accomplished them all. We're looking forward to your bright future.

Love,
 Mom, Dad, & Chelsey

Jim,
 You have paved a path for Wyatt, Stacia, and Trev with inspiration, perseverance, and a sense of character like no other.

You have always made us so very proud. As you venture into the future, just remember God and your family will always be with you.

All Our Love,
 Mom, Dad, Wyatt, Stacia, and Trev

Melissa,
 We've been very blessed to have you as a daughter, and we are so proud of you and all your accomplishments. Thanks for all the great memories! Keep your strong faith in God, and you'll have a life filled with happiness. We love you so very much and hope all your dreams come true!

 Mom and Dad

Josh,

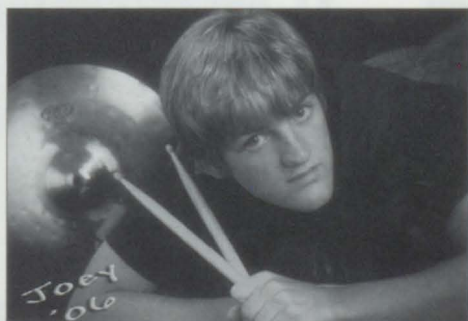

We are so proud of the wonderful young man you have become and of everything you have accomplished. You have given us so much joy in our lives. We are going to miss not having you around all the time. Just remember to keep God in your life and there is nothing you can't do!

 Love you always,
 Mom, Dad, Allison, and Zachary

Joey,
 We're so proud of you. Follow God's path and life will be great!

Love,
 Mom, Dad, J.P., Jaci, and Jaimee

Sarah,

We are so proud of what you have accomplished! From the first time that we held you in our arms, we knew that you completed our family. Believe in God, Sarah, and believe in yourself...then you can do anything!

All our love,
 Mom, Dad, Amy, and Nate

Jen,
 Congratulations! We are very proud of all you have accomplished so far. Thank you for all of the memories you have given us throughout your high school career. We look forward to many more as you enter college. We love you so much and hope for happiness and success for your future.

God Bless and Keep You Always,
 Mom, Dad, and Tiffany

Congratulations Thomas!
 I am so very proud of all that you have accomplished. You have much to offer this world.
 God Bless and Love you,
 Dad

Kimberly,
 The greatest achievements were at first and for sometime Dreams.
 Keep Dreaming OK!
 We love you so much.
 Love always,
 Dad and Mom

The first step is the dream.

T.J.
 We are so proud of the wonderful young man you have become. We hope you are as proud of your accomplishments as we are. We cherish every moment we have with you and look forward to many more.
 May God keep you in his loving embrace, and remember the best is yet to come.
 All our love forever,
 Dad, Mom, and Aaron

Katie,

Words cannot express the joy and happiness you have brought us. Continue life's journey with your passion and desire to help people. Keep your faith and God will always show you the way.

Our love forever,
Mom, Dad, Michaela, and Jay

Dear Jamie,

You are loved for the little girl you were...the neat young lady you are now...and the wonderful daughter and sister you will always be! You have kept us smiling and made us proud! Good luck in your future! Remember... "all things are possible." (Luke 18:27)

Love you always,
Dad, Mom, Jake, and Toby

Congratulations,
Chelsea.

You have made your sister and I very proud. You have worked hard. Now, you are ready to move on and shine in the world.

Love you,
Mom and Kendra

Congratulations Whitney!!

I will miss you terribly when you go to college but don't worry, I will be well taken care of. Good Luck. You made a perfect career choice and I know you'll do great!!

Love, Addie

Congratulations Cole!

We are so proud to call you our son. May God continue to bless you as you continue to learn and grow.

We love you!
Mom and Dad

Kelly,

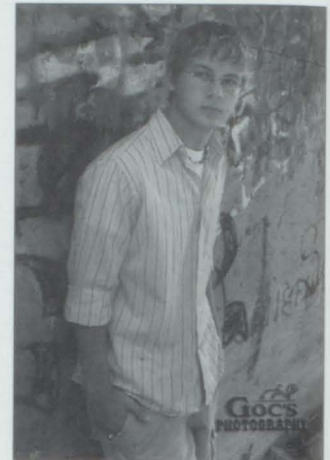

We are so proud of you and all that you've accomplished! We'll miss you very much. Keep your faith and have fun in life. Love you very much, Dad, Mom, and Katie

Tyler,

The moment you were born you made us smile and you made us proud. And now after over 18 years you are still making us smile and making us proud. Some people don't make a dent in this world, you will make another Grand Canyon.

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Makayla

Christopher,

We are very proud of the person you have grown to be. We wish you much success in all you do. Congratulations!

Love,

Kristina,
Can't believe how fast the years have gone from kindergarten to senior year. We will miss you. Thank you for all the memories, we have enjoyed them all. Remember to be yourself. Always know how proud we are of you and how much we love you.
Mom and Dad

Josh,
It is true what they say.
All things change with time, and we have too.
We have gone from being strictly parent and child to being good friends also.
We are so proud of the man you have become.
We will always be here
for you!
We love you,

F. New day in Iraq

Coalition troops, mostly from the U.S., remained in Iraq to put down insurgents as the citizens continued their quest for democracy. Iraqis approved a new constitution in October and their Parliament in December, in an effort to set up their new government.

G. New terrorist attacks

London felt the wrath of Islamic extremists when four bombs went off July 7, killing 56 people and injuring 700. Alarming was the fact that the four suicide bombers were Britons. An attempted attack on July 21 was thwarted and the suspects were caught. Bali, Indonesia, was the site of a suicide bombing again following one in 2002, and three suicide bombers attacked three hotels in Amman, Jordan.

H. More of Mother Nature's wrath

A severe drought provided kindling for wildfires that consumed hundreds of thousands of acres and hundreds of homes and businesses in Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Arkansas and Colorado.

I. Palestinians elect change

Members of the Hamas organization, which calls for the destruction of Israel, won a majority of the seats in the Palestinian Parliament in January. The United States, the European Union and Israel have labeled Hamas a terrorist group, and were carefully watching the change of government.

J. Top court shuffle

Two vacancies were filled on the U.S. Supreme Court. John G. Roberts became the new chief justice, replacing William Rehnquist after his death. Samuel Alito took the seat of Sandra Day O'Connor, who retired.

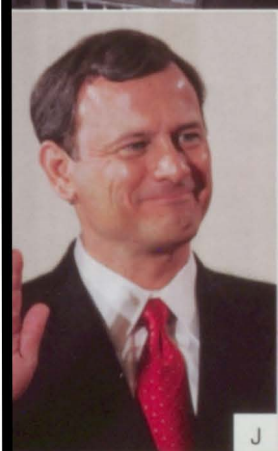

K. Matriarchs pass on

Rosa Parks and Coretta Scott King, two leaders of the civil rights movement, died within a few months of each other. Parks was remembered for refusing to give her bus seat to a white man in Montgomery, Ala., in 1955. King was the wife of slain civil rights leader Martin Luther King Jr., and she founded the King Center for Nonviolent Social Change in Atlanta to carry on his work.

L. Gas, oil prices heat up

High gasoline prices increased even more following hurricanes Katrina and Rita, which damaged oil refineries in the Gulf region. Prices were up already because of increased summer demand, higher crude prices and less refining capacity worldwide. Winter heating bills also surged as oil companies tried to repair damage and restore production.

M. Mountain tragedy

A massive earthquake in the mountains of the Kashmir region of Pakistan in October killed more than 79,000 people, injured almost as many, and left about 3.3 million homeless as winter approached. Donations were lacking and relief supplies were slow in reaching the needy.

M

N. New Pope

Joseph Ratzinger, a 78-year-old German cardinal, was installed as Pope Benedict XVI. Benedict, who now leads the world's 1.1 billion Catholics, worked closely in the Vatican with his predecessor, Pope John Paul II.

N

O. Flu scare for the birds

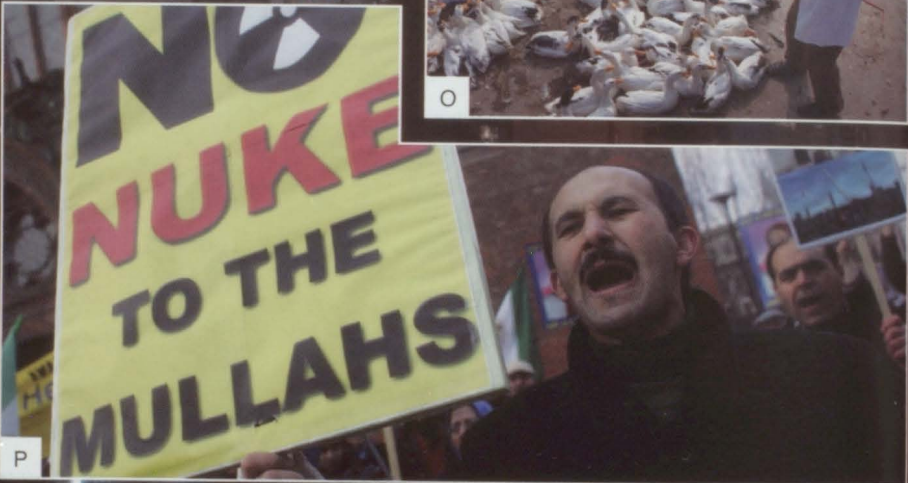

Medical officials put the world on notice after a strain of avian flu was detected in some isolated human cases in China and Hong Kong. After more cases popped up elsewhere, the World Health Organization urged countries to prepare for a possible pandemic. There were concerns not only about migratory birds spreading the disease, but commercial fowl shipped for consumption.

O

P. Nuclear concerns

The U.S., Great Britain, France and Germany continued to pressure Iran to reduce its nuclear activities, and wanted the United Nations security council to impose sanctions.

Q. Should they listen in?

The National Security Agency came under fire for using electronic eavesdropping without warrants. The practice began after the 9/11 attacks to fight terrorism, and while the Bush administration, including Attorney General Alberto Gonzales, defended the practice, others argued it was illegal.

Q

R. Mining tragedies

Sixteen West Virginia coal miners died in separate accidents in January, as did one miner in Kentucky. In the first accident at the Sago mine in West Virginia, a terrible miscommunication led the families to believe the men were alive after a 41-hour rescue.

S. Stroke affects election

Israeli Prime Minister Ariel Sharon suffered a massive stroke three months before March elections. Sharon had formed a new political party, Kadima, and was seeking support at the polls as he attempted to reach a peace agreement with Palestinians.

T

T. Tsunami recovery

Tourists began returning to areas in Asia where a tsunami swallowed people, towns and livelihoods on Dec. 26, 2004. Aid came from across the globe to the dozen countries that were hit. In the U.S., the relief effort was headed by an unlikely pair – former presidents George H.W. Bush and Bill Clinton.

U. Paris ablaze

France endured 18 nights of rioting that started in the poor suburbs of Paris. The arsons and other acts of destruction began after the accidental electrocution of two teens who thought police were chasing them, and turned into protests against the government for racial discrimination and unemployment.

V. A new money man

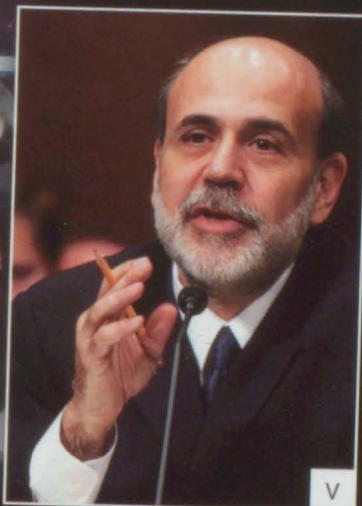

Ben Bernanke was appointed by President Bush to be the new chairman of the Federal Reserve board, a position that directs monetary policy for the U.S. and affects your wallet. Bernanke, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, replaced Alan Greenspan, who was the much-watched Federal Reserve chairman for 18 years.

W. ARGG!

An old-fashioned battle of the sea was won with today's technology. Pirates attacked the Seabourn Spirit cruise ship off the coast of Somalia with grenade launchers and machine guns, but never got close enough to board. The cruise ship crew used a sonic device to send an ear-splitting noise toward the pirates, then shifted to high speed and changed course.

A-E Games of Turin

Turin, Italy stepped onto the world stage and played host to the Winter Olympics for two weeks in February. It was the largest Winter Olympics ever, with 2,500 athletes representing 82 countries competing in 84 events.

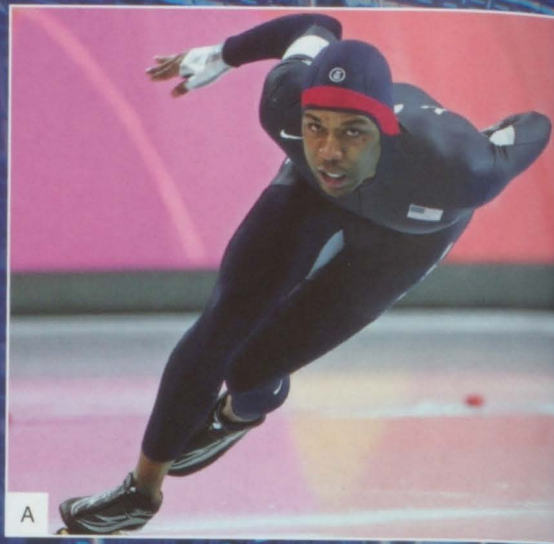

Long-track speedskating turned into one of the American team's best events. Shani Davis (A) won the Gold medal in the men's 1,000 meters and became the first African-American champion in Winter Olympics history. Former inline skating champion Chad Hedrick became an Olympic speedskating champion in the men's 5,000 meters just three years after taking the ice in the sport for the very first time. They were joined at the top of the podium by teammate Joey Cheek, who sprinted to Gold in the men's 500 meters.

Snowboarding was also ruled by the U.S. Shaun White (B), nicknamed "The Flying Tomato" for his bright red hair and acrobatic moves on the extreme sports circuit, won the Gold medal in the Men's Halfpipe. The 19-year old White showed nervousness when he fell during qualifying, but he recovered to win the Gold with a flourish in the finals. Other American winners included Hannah Teter in the Women's Halfpipe and Seth Wescott in the Men's Cross.

Ted Ligety (C) gave the U.S. ski team a boost by winning the Alpine Combined. It was the first Olympic appearance for the relatively unknown Ligety. He became only the fourth American male to win an Alpine Olympic Gold medal.

It was not all positive news for the U.S. Snowboarder Lindsey Jacobellis (D) poignantly summed up the highs and lows of the Olympic journey. Jacobellis was easily racing to victory in the finals of the Women's Cross when she threw too much style into an aerial and crashed. Jacobellis was unable to recover in time to keep her lead, and she was forced to settle for the Silver medal.

Jimmie Johnson won the 2006 Daytona 500.

Tiger Woods won his 10th major championship, taking the British Open for the second time.

F. Men of Steel

The Pittsburgh Steelers capped an improbable championship run by defeating the Seattle Seahawks in Super Bowl XL, 21-10. Pittsburgh was the last team to qualify for the AFC playoffs, and the Steelers made it to the title game by becoming the first team in NFL history to win three straight playoff games on the road. Wide receiver Hines Ward was chosen Super Bowl MVP after he grabbed five catches for 123 yards, including the game-clinching 43-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter.

G. White Sox champs again...finally

The Chicago White Sox eased the pain of long-suffering Windy City baseball fans by winning their first World Series title in 86 years, sweeping the Houston Astros in four games. Chicago was dominant in the playoffs with an 11-1 record.

H. Back on the ice

After losing an entire season to labor strife for the first time in league history, NHL owners and players settled their differences and returned to the rink. The new season arrived with a slew of rule changes as well, designed to speed up the game.

I. Danica in the driver's seat

Danica Patrick was not the first woman to ever race in the Indy Racing League, but she might have made the biggest splash, qualifying and finishing fourth at the Indy 500, the highest finish ever by a rookie driver. The 23-year-old Patrick went on to win IRL rookie of the year after several top 10 finishes.

J. A bumpy ride

Cyclist Lance Armstrong pedaled his way through another news-worthy year, winning the Tour de France for a record seventh consecutive time, then retiring from the sport, announcing his engagement and break-up to rock star Sheryl Crow and again being forced to respond to doping allegations from the French media.

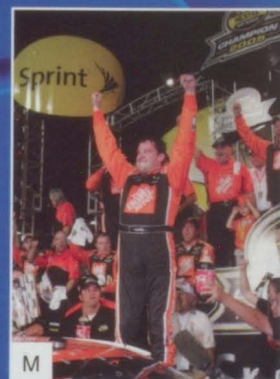

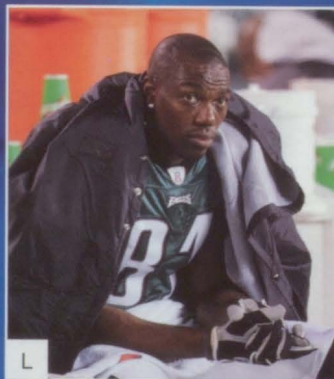

K. One for the ages

USC's Heisman Trophy teammates, running back Reggie Bush and quarterback Matt Leinart, were not quite good enough to win a third straight college football national title, as the Trojans fell to Texas, 41-38, in the dramatic championship game at the Rose Bowl. Texas quarterback Vince Young stole the show, scoring the game-winning touchdown with 19 seconds left.

L. No more T.O.

Just one year after helping the Philadelphia Eagles reach the Super Bowl, wide receiver Terrell Owens got suspended from the team in mid-season, due to his detrimental conduct. The problems started when the outspoken and controversial Owens got upset that the team would not re-negotiate his contract.

M. Sensational Stewart

Behind a season that included five wins and 24 top 10 finishes, NASCAR driver Tony Stewart won his second Nextel Cup championship. Often referred to in the past as the bad boy of racing due to his short temper, Stewart joined Jeff Gordon as the only multiple Cup winner among active drivers.

N. Golden retirement

Considered by many the greatest golfer of his time, Jack Nicklaus decided to retire from competitive golf at the age of 65. Nicklaus won 18 major championships in his career, more than anybody in history. In his final round at the British Open, Nicklaus ended in style by sinking a 15-foot birdie on the final hole.

O. Two of a kind

The San Antonio Spurs and Detroit Pistons, respective winners of the previous two NBA championships, continued their domination. The two teams met in the 2005 NBA Finals, with the Spurs winning in seven games. Both rolled along during the 2006 season, compiling two of the best records in basketball by the All-Star Break.

P. Cleaning up the game

Baseball's steroid use scandal continued, with many high-profile players even testifying at Congressional hearings. Baltimore Orioles star Rafael Palmeiro denied use, then tested positive and was suspended during the season. After the 2005 season, Major League Baseball instituted a stricter steroid testing policy.

Los Angeles Lakers guard Kobe Bryant scored 81 points in one game, the second highest individual total in NBA history.

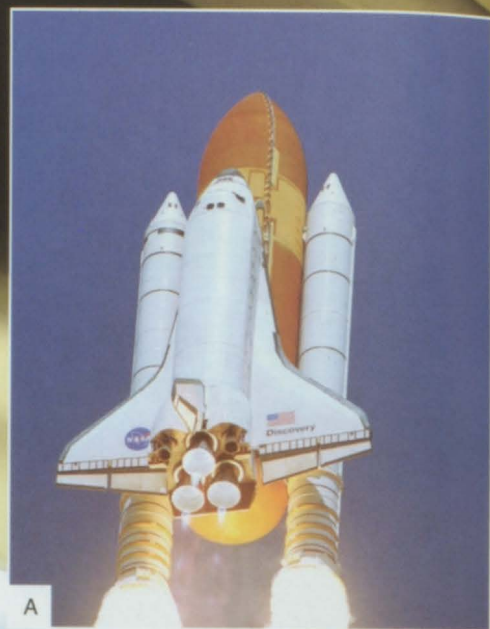

USC running back Reggie Bush won the Heisman Trophy in a landslide vote.

Swiss tennis star Roger Federer stayed number one in the world by winning Wimbledon, the U.S. Open and the Australian Open.

A. Shuttle back in orbit

Two years after the Columbia tragedy grounded NASA's manned space flight program, space shuttle Discovery returned NASA to outer space with a successful two-week mission. However, anxious moments came after foam insulation knocked loose on take-off caused a two-day delay in Discovery's return to Earth.

B. Science or religion?

Communities and school districts ferociously debated the merits of Intelligent Design, a concept that asserts certain aspects of the living world seemed to be caused by an intelligent source, rather than a random process such as natural selection. Opponents claimed it was religion masquerading as science, while proponents insisted it should be a respected point of view.

C. Space tourist

American scientist Gregory Olsen paid $20 million for a 10-day trip to the International Space Station. Olsen, the co-founder and chairman of his own fiber-optics company, made the trip aboard a Russian rocket and became only the third civilian to become a "space tourist."

D. 360 around the world

Microsoft released its newest gaming system, Xbox 360, just in time for the holidays and prompted shoppers to camp out in lines to gobble them up. The consoles were also launched with a new expanded service from Microsoft that allowed gamers worldwide to play one another.

E. Generation MySpace

Teens continued becoming more immersed in the internet. MySpace.com, an online social community geared toward young adults and musicians, became one of the fastest-growing websites on the internet. Just two years old, MySpace's membership approached 50 million users and began getting more hits than Google and AOL. Elsewhere, popular online encyclopedias like Wikipedia started to be viewed as viable reference tools, despite debates regarding its accuracy.

F. Lost World

Conservation groups on an expedition into the remote tropical jungles of Indonesia discovered dozens of new animal and plant species. The scientists reportedly found up to 20 new types of frogs and a species of tree kangaroo (pictured) that was previously thought to be extinct.

G. Park for free

Salt Lake City joined a growing list of American cities that began offering free metered downtown parking for more environmentally friendly vehicles. To qualify, cars needed to get at least 50 miles to the gallon or be a hybrid powered by an alternative fuel. Other cities that offered similar programs included Austin, Texas and New Haven, Conn.

H. Landmark surgery

Doctors in Miami successfully removed a 16-pound tumor from the face of Marie Casseus, a 14-year-old Haitian girl suffering from a rare genetic disorder. Casseus was brought to the United States for the procedure after aid workers in Haiti discovered her case. Donations from all over the world helped Casseus' family pay the medical bills.

I. Monkey business

A group of American scientists announced that they successfully decoded the DNA of the chimpanzee, considered the closest relative to humans in nature. By comparing the chimp DNA to human DNA, the doctors hoped to discover the roots of various diseases.

entertainment | YEAR IN REVIEW 2006

A. By George, a great year

Already one of America's most popular movie stars, George Clooney added critical acclaim to his resume by earning two Oscar nominations. Clooney received a Best Supporting Actor nod for his role as a CIA spy in the thriller Syriana, and a Best Director nomination for the Edward R. Murrow biopic Good Night, and Good Luck, which also was nominated for Best Picture.

B. A slice of real life

The films honored with Best Picture Oscar nominations relied heavily on real events. Munich told the story of fallout from the terrorist attacks at the 1972 Olympics, Good Night, and Good Luck focused on 1950s TV journalist Edward R. Murrow, and Capote examined the life of famed writer Truman Capote. Other Best Picture nominees included Brokeback Mountain and Crash.

C. King of the mountain

An updated version of the classic tale of King Kong made it into theaters around New Year's. The big-budget, special effects blockbuster once again told the story of the giant ape discovered on a mysterious tropical island, who is brought to Depression-era New York as a sideshow act.

D. May the force be with you... always

The long-awaited final movie in the Star Wars saga, Revenge of the Sith, dominated the box office and became one of the highest grossing films of all-time, earning nearly $400 million. Despite the critical and financial success of Sith, series creator George Lucas vowed the story was over and no more Star Wars movies would be made.

E. Not Lost on the audience

Lost, ABC's adventure series about a group of people stranded on a mysterious island after a plane crash, won Best Drama Series at the Emmy Awards and continued to attract nearly 20 million viewers each week.

E

Joaquin Phoenix and Reese Witherspoon both got Oscar nominations for playing Johnny and June Carter Cash in Walk the Line.

Popular children's tale, Chronicles of Narnia: The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe, was made into a hit movie.

F. Back in the spotlight

After her career seemed derailed due to a series of highly publicized emotional troubles, R&B singer Mariah Carey staged a huge comeback when her new album, The Emancipation of Mimi, ended up as the highest seller of the year. The record earned Carey three Grammy awards.

G. Can't get enough CSI

TV viewers continued to be infatuated with CBS' batch of crime dramas. CSI was still the most watched show on network TV. CSI: Miami and CSI: New York also drew huge ratings.

H. 50 Cent worth millions

Rapper 50 Cent put out another hit album, with The Massacre selling more than 5 million copies. He also starred in the hit movie Get Rich or Die Tryin, which was loosely based on his life story.

I. Potter mania rampant again

Release of the sixth book in the popular Harry Potter series created quite a stir. Harry Potter and the Half-blood Prince sold more than 10 million copies, and author J.K. Rowling stunned many readers by killing off one of the story's main characters. The latest Harry Potter movie (based on the fourth book), Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire, ruled the box office in the fall.

J. Familiar faces

Ratings showed that several familiar TV shows continued to be big hits with the young teen audience. Gilmore Girls, The OC, Smallville and Veronica Mars were among those that stayed popular.

K. Penguins everywhere

Documentary film March of the Penguins drew in nearly $80 million at the box office, a previously unheard of figure for its genre. Critical praise and positive word of mouth helped the movie, which fascinated millions with its story about the mating rituals of penguins at the South Pole.

Wedding Crashers was the comedy hit of the year, raking in more than $200 million.

Gwen Stefani released her first solo album, which included number one hit song "Hollaback Girl."

L. Whole new idols

Carrie Underwood won the fourth season of musical reality TV show American Idol. By the spring, 24 new hopefuls were picked as finalists for the fifth season. Meanwhile, past winners Kelly Clarkson and Fantasia became the first Idol alums to earn Grammy nominations.

M. Womack wins

Straying away from the trend of pop-infused country music, Lee Ann Womack was rewarded with three wins at the CMA Awards. Womack's traditional country record, There's More Where That Came From, won Album of the Year and her ballad "I May Hate Myself in the Morning" won Song of the Year.

N. The first lady

So when will the U.S. have a female president? In the world of fictional TV, it happened this year. ABC's Commander In Chief cast Geena Davis in the role of the president, and the drama series became the highest-rated new show on the air.

O. Gone, but not forgotten

Famed American comedian Richard Pryor died after a long battle with multiple sclerosis. Other noteworthy entertainers to pass away included R&B singer Luther Vandross, actresses Anne Bancroft and Shelley Winters, and actor Pat Morita, the beloved Mr. Miyagi from The Karate Kid movies.

P. 8 is enough

On the 20th anniversary of his famous charity concert Live Aid, music producer Bob Geldof reprised the event by staging Live 8, a series of charity concerts that took place in eight countries during the first week of July. Estimates indicated that more than one million people attended and more than 1,000 musicians performed at Live 8.

Q. Good works rewarded

U2 lead singer Bono received another prestigious honor, but this one had nothing to do with his music. Bono, along with Microsoft founder Bill Gates and his wife, Melinda, were chosen Persons of the Year by Time magazine for their global charitable efforts to fight poverty and disease.

R. Kanye keeps up

Controversial rapper Kanye West made headlines for his music, with his latest album Late Registration earning eight Grammy nominations, and for his mouth after he criticized President George W. Bush's handling of Hurricane Katrina.

S. A new job with Disney

Steve Jobs, co-founder and CEO of Apple Computers, strengthened his status as a pop culture icon after his Pixar Animation Studios, the creator of popular computer animated movies like The Incredibles and Toy Story, agreed to a merger with longtime partner Walt Disney Pictures. In the process, Jobs became the largest shareholder in Disney.

T. A million questions

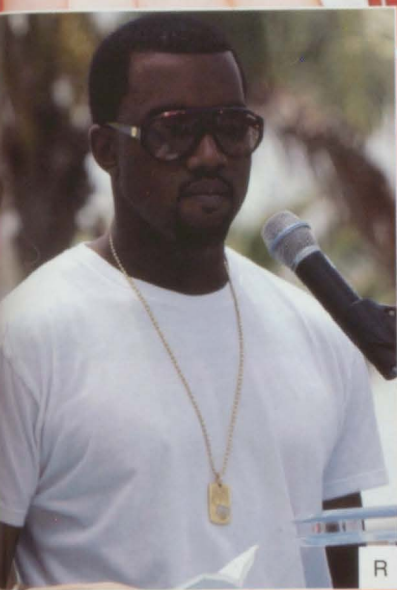

Author James Frey garnered critical acclaim for his best-selling self-help memoir A Million Little Pieces, which told the story of how he overcame a life of crime and drug addiction. However after much public scrutiny, Frey admitted that large portions of the book were exaggerated and embellished.

U. Back on the air

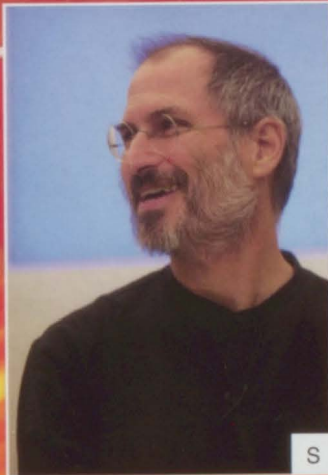

A grassroots fan movement, driven largely by DVD sales, prompted Fox to bring back animated comedy series Family Guy. The show, centered on the wild antics of an off-the-wall Rhode Island family, a diabolical one-year old baby and their talking dog, had been cancelled by Fox in 2002.

E. Play for work

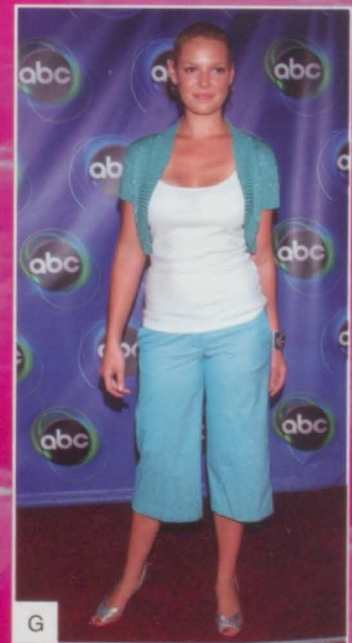

It's not just fun and games. More colleges began offering courses and degrees related to video games as the industry becomes serious business. The colleges are feeding a demand for skilled developers and technicians.

F

F. Blog this

A study showed that half of all teens and 57 percent of teens who use the internet have created a blog or website or posted something online. The study by Pew Internet and American Life Project was conducted to look at falling newspaper readership.

G

G. Shrug it off

For dressing up this year, shrugs and gauchos were the rage for girls of all ages, while other students who wanted to dress down did not even bother with regular clothes – they just wore their PJs to school.
